DEDICATION

BOYS and girls in caps and gowns, marching forward on a platform—applause! Every parent recognizes his child as the most promising. Even the casual observer will come to the conclusion, "that is a splendid bunch of graduates." Perhaps he will feel a bit of pride in them, a sense of security and confidence that youth to-day seems to awaken. If one of that group could analyze the many influences that have brought him to his present position, he would pay tribute to a firm, guiding hand, which has always remained in the background.

Whose is this hand? Who, among the millions who watch the coming generation, has had the bravery to stand by them, to lead them, and to make them profit by others' experience? What name, in the amount of work and devotion it represents, is next to "Mother" and "Father"?—Our Teacher!

Feeling that we have been particularly blessed by our contact with these

MY HOUSES

*I built my house of dreams
Of fancies and bright day dreams.
With the mortar of my imagination
I fastened it together.
The panes of the windows were the gleams—
The iridescent gleams of bubbles.
It was beautiful as are the smiles
Of children in their sleep—
And I cherished it and protected it,
For it was fragile as are all dreams;
But one day the cold wind of reason came
And blew upon it and it was wafted away
To the four corners of the world.
I stood heartbroken, for I had builded long
And the days of my youth were in that house.*

*I am building again, but not with dreams
Nor fancies—my imagination is dead.
I have laid a foundation of knowledge,
And upon this I erect the house of my life.
With the mortar of experience
Do I fasten it together.
The work goes but slowly, for I am untaught;
But the cold, drear winds of reason
May howl around it and tear with their clutching hands
As they will, for I am building securely.*

This is how we know Zelda!

RAPHAEL MONROE ALGER

J. L. S.

Raphael is quiet, though friendly, and is studious as is shown by his record. He is capable, ambitious and original and is inclined toward the literary field. His presence in Ole Hi will be missed next fall when he is a "rat" at Hampden-Sidney College.

HOWARD ALTIZER

Football, '24-'25; Track, '27; Monogram Club;
Sergeant at Arms; Secretary and Treasurer
Jefferson Cotillion

Luck to you, "Fatz." We wish you much luck at Alabama.

MARY RICHMOND ANDERSON

Mary has blue eyes and dark curly hair, a mixture of pep, vivacity and a charming personality. She's a jolly good sport and is very popular, especially with V. P. I. and Richmond. An interesting conversationalist, a good friend, and a true, blue pal. Best of luck to you from the Class of '27.

ELIZABETH BAKER ANTRIM

Girls' Club, 1925-'26-'27; Social Chairman of Girls' Club
'26-'27; French Club, '25-'26; Booster Club, '26-'27;
Historian of Booster Club '26-'27

Here's to Liz, one of Hi's most attractive seniors. For she certainly has a winning personality. Jefferson High will suffer a great loss when she goes to Farmville next year. Best of luck, Liz.

HAZEL ARMISTEAD

Girls' Club

Better known as "Jum" to her many friends, is demure and quiet and is the retiring maid whom all love. A friend in need is a friend in deed, that's Jum. Hollins will claim her next year. Jum, here's to you.

HELEN MARIE ASHWELL

Helen is always smiling. Talented, yes, she can make the piano keys ring with tunes that entertain all her friends, even "Nichols." She is very studious and is always willing to help anyone who is in need. We certainly envy National Business College next year. Best of luck, Helen.

BEULAH ATKINS

A dark-eyed beauty! Beulah is sweet, sporty, and always helps you over the ruts. She spreads wars and rumors of wars on Cupid's battlefield. We know that in the football game of life, Beulah will stay in all the time, not get knocked out and will score a winning touchdown.

ROY LEE BAILEY

"I'll be merry, I'll be free, I'll be sad for nobody."

Such is Roy's disposition. His sunny smile and invariable good humor will forever keep him in our memory. His mathematical ability can lead to nothing but greater achievements. Although he is undecided as to his future, we know that he will reach the pinnacle of success.

MAY I. BALDWIN

Basket Ball Class Team, '24-'25-'26; G. C.; Wishful Club

Gentlemen may prefer blonds, but V. P. I. and Roanoke College prefer this brunette. Dashing, vivacious, pretty, carefree, she smiles her way through everything. A versatile athlete who passes her subjects as cleverly as she plays basket ball. She has captured Hi. Farmville is next.

FRANK MILLS BALLINGER

Basket Ball, '27

The tall, dignified, wide-awake (?) senior—Although he says that he is a woman-hater, we notice that his attractive, likeable personality and his ability to argue have gained for him numerous friends—We expect great things from Frank.

MARY VIVIAN BARRY

Girls' Club

Pretty, attractive and popular—that's Vivian. Vivian has a rare combination of beauty and brains, and by her winning smile and attractive personality has won a host of friends around ole Hi. We just couldn't get along without Vivian and we expect great things of her in the future.

LUCY ADRIA BEAHM

S. C., '26-'27

B-eloved.
E-ndeared to all.
A-thletic.
H-as loads of friends.
M-erry and mischievous.

EDWIN IRVING BELL

*Vice President Sophomore Class; Monogram Club, '25-'26;
Big Brother Club, '25-'26-'27; Track, '25-'26;
Football Team, '25-'26*

Who in Hi doesn't know Dumbell? A scholar he could have been, but wasn't, which gave him plenty of time to be a musical man, a sheik with the ladies, and a fullback on the Big Red Team—Quite a combination!

EDMUND BERKELEY

"Acorn" Representative, '26-'27

Edmund is one of our new Seniors, but with his pleasing personality he has won a place in the hearts of everyone with whom he has come in contact. High loses a good student when Edmund goes to Episcopal High. Success to you, Edmund!

EVELYN BERRY

Evelyn is one of our January graduates. She is quiet and dignified, yet she is ever ready for fun. She is an ideal chum and a good student. She has expressed a desire to become a stenographer and we know she will succeed. Best of luck to you, Evelyn.

CARRIE JOSEPHINE BICKFORD

Booster Club; Wishefu Club, '23; Varsity Basket Ball, '27; G. A. A., '26-'27; Glee Club, '26; Captain Fresh Basket Ball, '24-'25; Membership Committee G. C., '24-'25-'26-'27

"Itty Bitty," an all-round sport. Sweet capable and sincere, always willing to lend a helping hand. She plans to be an athletic director but is also interested in aviation.

VIRDIE BITTERMAN

Those of us who have known Virdie have been most favored. She has brightened our High School life. We can understand that life's sweetest treasure is the grip of the hand of a friend that is tried and true—and Virdie is that kind of a friend.

JOHN BLADON

This John has been with us only one year (he hails from Cincinnati). We have had ample opportunity to learn of his ability. He is one of our most studious Seniors, but you sure ought to see him play basket ball. John plans to enter Virginia in the fall and we know he will come through with high honors.

WINIFRED SUSIE BLOUNT

S. C., '25-'26

Attractive, friendly, a good student. These help to characterize "Winkie." Her marvelous personality and love of music make her one of our best loved Seniors. We expect great things from Winifred as she continues her study in voice.

MARYDELLA BONDURANT

G. C., '25-'26-'27; G. A. A., '26-'27; French Club, '25-'26; Senior Volley Ball

Della? Yes, you all know her—a real brunette. She's rather quiet but a true-blue friend, one worth cultivating. Della's going to Hollins next year. Gee, won't we miss her!

JOHN LEWIS BOWERS

Spanish Club, '25-'26-'27; J. L. S., '26-'27; Program Committee, '26-'27

"Unique" is the best thing to say of him. He is that in every way. He is a Jeffersonian, and one of the best. He has a great mind for speaking, which will carry him far. The last word, as a "lady-killer," Louis is "it." Finale!

JOHN "JACK" WADDELL BOWLES

J. L. S., '24-'25-'26-'27; Chairman Point Committee '26-'27

"Not too sober, not too gay,
But a real good fellow in every way."

This describes "Jack" exactly. He is an exceptionally good student and more than holds his own in reading and debate. Jack anticipates going to Roanoke College and we are sure of his success while there, and afterward.

HELEN BRICKEY

Girls' Club, '25-'26, '26-'27; Corresponding Secretary G. C., '26-'27; Sergeant at Arms, '26-'27

One of our tall, attractive Seniors, who plays the piano marvelously. Once one knows Helen, the friendship is lasting. Randolph-Macon awaits her arrival next fall and with her fine grades and friendly ways we think success awaits her.

VIRGINIA CHARA BROOKS

G. C.

Virginia is another of our brilliant and attractive Seniors. She has a sweet and cheerful disposition. Virginia is inclined to be a little mischievous but anyway she makes fine grades. Whatever you do, Virginia, and wherever you go may you always have the best of luck.

ROBERT LAWRENCE BROWN

J. L. S., '24-'25; Secretary of J. L. S., '25; President of Sophomore Class, '24-'25; Coöperative Council, '25-'26; Charter Member Big Brother Club, '24-'25-'26-'27; Radio Club of '24-'25; Membership Committee Big Brother Club, 6-'27; Advertising Manager B. B. B. Musical Revue of '27

Lawrence is one of our small Seniors but his stature is the only thing small about him. Original, witty and capable, "Brownie" is a true sport and a worthy friend. He will take up mechanical engineering at V. P. I. next year.

LILLIAN BLANCHE BRUMFIELD

Girls' Club

Peppy, petite, pretty and sophisticated exactly describes Lillian. If not laughing, she is ever ready to do so, which describes her disposition. Always as ready to help a friend as to share their joys, explains why her friends are many. Best of luck always, Lillian.

THOMAS BURCH

Hi-Y

When you see a good-looking, dignified boy walking around the halls attracting attention of both boys and girls you'll just know it's Tom.

He has decided to attend W. & L. University and we are sure he will make a huge success.

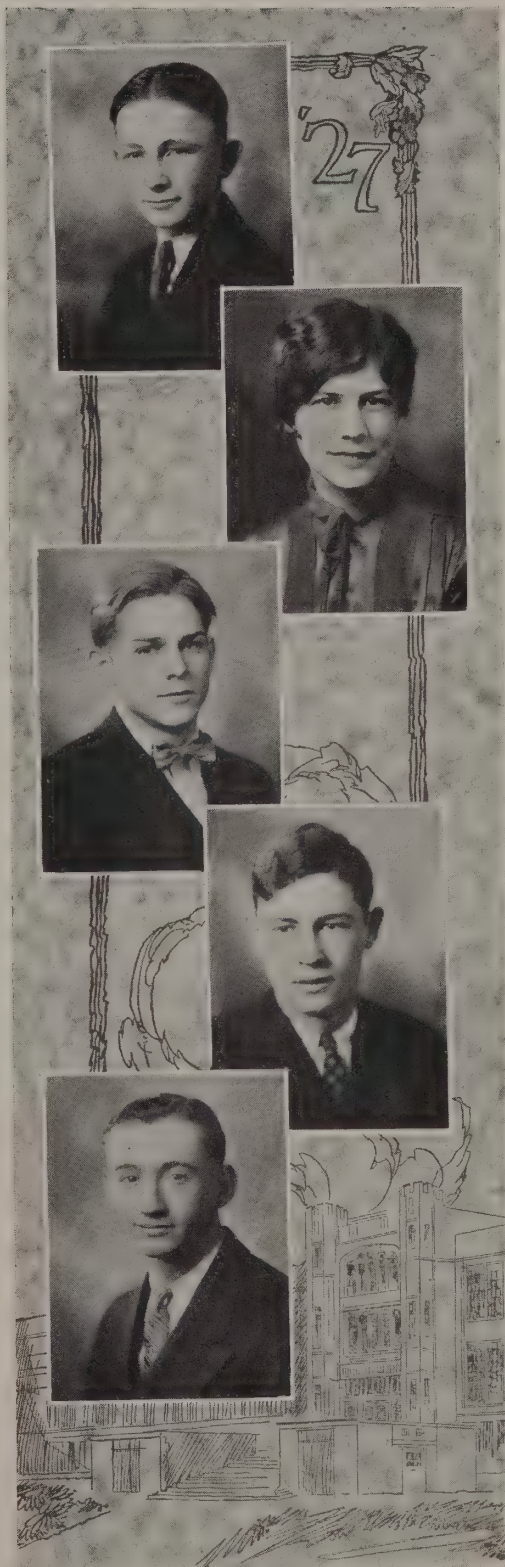

MARTIN PARKS BURKS

Don't know "Monnie?" Impossible! He's the good-looking, popular, and well-liked Senior that every one admires. Personality? Loads! Next year W. & L. claims our young heart-breaker. Then we think maybe he'll study zoölogy as he's fond of "Bears."

LESLIE GARLAND CALDER

J. L. S., '24-'25; Advertising Manager, Acorn, '25-'26; Honorary Member Junior World News Staff, '26-'27; Assistant Cheer Leader, '26-'27

Leslie is very capable and is always ready to lend a helping hand. He is a good sport and a true friend always. He expects to study Chemical Engineering at V. P. I. "Hail to the Hi Spectator!"

HULDA PENN CALLAWAY

Hulda is our very small Senior. She is very popular with both pupils and teachers. And smart? Yes, indeed. Hulda, though she doesn't seem to burn the midnight oil you have heard the saying "Little but loud"—that's Hulda exactly. Here's wishing you success in what ever you undertake, Hulda.

CHARLES WILLIAM CAMPER

Spanish Club

"Billy" is a most striking example of a typical senior, with his somewhat reserved manner and charming personality. He possesses those admirable traits of good sportmanship and ability to study, which will without doubt guide him through his career.

PAGE F. CARDER

Small, with light hair, blue eyes and a winning smile, that's Page! His sunny disposition has won him many friends at old Hi. He will attend University of Virginia next year, and we are sure he will make a success. J. H. S. wishes him much happiness in whatever he undertakes.

JESSIE "BUD" CARTER

President Class, '27; President Big Brother Club, '25-'26; President Elect Big Brother Club, '23-'24; Secretary Big Brother Club, '23-'24; Hi-Y Club, '24-'25-'26-'27; Varsity Football, '23-'24-'25; Monogram Club, '23-'24; Subscription Editor, Acorn, '24-'25; Sophomore Hall of Fame, '24-'25; Coöperative Council, '23-'24; Secretary Coöperative, '25-'26; Vice President Junior Class; President Junior Lions, '25-'26-'27

"Always smiling." "Bud's" record speaks for itself. Alabama claims him next year. Best luck!

AUDREY LOUISE CASSELL

Girls' Club; French Club, '26

An unusual type. A delightful mixture of old-fashioned charm and dignity with up-to-date pep, sympathy and ability. She is one of the few of whom it can be truthfully said, "She is, in the highest sense, a friend."

LOUISE GREGG CASSERLEY

G. C.; G. A. A.

*Varsity Basket Ball, '26-'27; Junior Basket Ball, '26;
Captain Senior Basket Ball, '27; Monogram Club,
'26-'27; Volley Ball, '26*

Up one day and down the next,
Sometimes happy, sometimes vexed;
Likes athletics best of all,
She's some guard in basket ball.
Most times sport clothes—sometimes dressy,
But always with her friend—Majessie.

HARRY HASTON CHEATHAM

"Bud" is a tall, handsome Senior, rather quiet, but a good pal and true friend. He is always in a good humor and ready to lend a helping hand. Harry hasn't yet decided where he will attend college but good luck to him.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH CHICK

G. C.

The youngest in the class—only fourteen. Light hair, blue eyes and a sweet disposition—this is Florence! Talk about grades! She knows how to make them, especially in Math. Florence plans to enter William and Mary next year and we will lose our only "chick."

GEORGE DAVID CHILDRESS

Spanish Club '26-'27

"Buddy" is one of these quiet fellows who takes in a lot but doesn't talk unless he can say something. To know him is to love him, as he is witty, full of fun and never angered. He is a good sport in every way.

LAURINE CHILTON

Laurine is one of our tall, blond Seniors. She has a charming personality and a sweet disposition. She is always bright and cheerful, wherever she goes, and always willing to lend a helping hand. Old Hi wishes you great success in whatever you undertake. Best o'luck to you, Laurine.

LEWIS JACKSON CLARKE

Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27; Spanish Club; Treasurer, '26; President, '26; Secretary, '27; Coöperative Council, '24; Roanoke Roman, '24-'25; Circulation Manager Acorn, '26-'27

"Jack" is the nickname for attractiveness, ability and brains. When it comes to grades, "Jack" doesn't get left far, 'cause he's always "there with the goods." His activities speak for themselves. Jack's going to Roanoke College and the University and then—he'll be a great lawyer, some day.

HENRY S. COFFEY

Orchestra; Glee Club, '27

Henry may be characterized by his winning smile and genial personality. His record at High, though not brilliant, is to be envied. "Ole Hi's" loss is Va. Tech's gain. We're sure there's success around the corner, and may bad luck always follow you, but never catch up with you.

LEWIS RANDOLPH COLEMAN

Lewis may not be known by everyone, but he has a very winning personality. He adapts himself particularly to engineering and mechanical work. For this reason he expects to attend V. P. I. Whatever you undertake, Lewis, the Class of '27 feels it will be a success.

RUBY MAY CONNER

Ruby is the attractive little Senior that everybody knows and loves. She is planning to be somebody's "stenog" soon, but we have our doubts. We hope that she will succeed in everything she undertakes in life and that she will be very happy. Here's to you, Ruby.

WALLACE CONNOLLY

Highest credit is due Wallace. Though handicapped, he has excelled in studies. We admire you and wish you every success.

SALLY IRENE CORBIN

Irene is a girl we all have loved. She is a good student, a grand sport and the best pal ever. We all hate to see her leave, but good luck and best wishes to Sally.

ODELE MARIE CONSTANTEAN

French Club, '25; H. E. C., '25-'26; G. A. A., '26-'27; Girls' Club, '26-'27; Glee Club, '27

Odele is one of the quietest and most unobtrusive members of the Senior Class. She is a commercial student, makes good grades and the teachers all like her. Odele is going out into the business world and she takes Ole Hi's sincere wishes for a successful career.

ELLSWORTH COX

Luck to you in every undertaking.

MARY ALICE CRADDOCK

G. C.; H. E. C.

Blue eyes that sparkle with mischief; brown curly hair, piquant face and a sweet personality will make up our memories of Mary Alice. "Mac" makes good grades and is a favorite with the teachers. It's hard to tell what she will do—but she will make a success—we know she will!

DOROTHY VIRGINIA CRAWFORD

G. C.

Now, talking about good looks, pep, sportsmanship, sweetness and friendliness! Just juggle them all together and you have our "Dot." Randolph-Macon claims her next year. We don't know what "Dot" is planning as her career but we do know her ability—and so there! Success always, "Dot."

HARRIET ALICE CRITZ

Booster Club, '26-'27; Girls' Club

When you see a bobbed-haired girl
Full of pep with lots of whirl.
Call her Harriet,
She can dance and sho' can sing.
Quite a number had a fit
The first time they met our Harriet.

MARGARET ELIZABETH CROCKETT

G. C., '26-'27

*Recording Secretary of W. C., '26;
Treasurer Art Class, '26*

Margaret is the attractive brown-eyed Senior who represents intelligence, personality and good sportsmanship. She has won many friends in Ole Hi who hate to lose her but who wish her the best of luck in future life. Here's to you, Margaret.

STAFFORD CROWLEY

*Chairman Membership Committee S. C., '25; Chairman
Pin Committee S. C., '25; President S. C., '26;
Reporter S. C., '26; Acorn Staff, '26-'27;
Corresponding Secretary J. L. S., '26;
President J. L. S., '27
State Debating Team*

Stafford, a typical Senior with a ready smile. He possesses real executive ability, excellent dramatic interpretation, and is a first-class debater. We are confident that with his record and determination he will gain the highest pinnacle of success at West Point.

GUSSIE CUNDIFF

What a pity a picture can't express one's personality. Gussie's would bubble over with fun and winning smiles. She has lovely brown hair and lovelier blue eyes. She is studious, too, and wonder of wonders, she studies Vergil. Harrisonburg claims Gussie next year. Here's to you from the Class of '27.

DORIS CUNNINGHAM

Dark brunette of Spanish type,
Gentle, studious and bright,
Capable beyond compare,
Quiet and courteous, spirit rare.
Describe her fairly—no one could,
Example of true womanhood.
To you may the kind fates amply serve
The life of blessings you deserve.

HERBERT GORDON CUNNINGHAM

Gordon is one of our quieter and more dignified Seniors. He is rather studious and, while not so outspoken, usually does well in classwork. The Class of '27 wishes him much luck and great success.

IRENE DAILEY

Who is that brunette who belongs to the Glee Club, the Home Economics Club, and the Girls' Club?

None other than Irene Dailey. Does she stop at school activities? No, indeed, she is also an active worker in her church. She is good-natured and jolly. Luck to you, Irene.

ELIZABETH VIRGINIA DAVIS

G. C.

"Five foot two, eyes of blue,"—that is "Liz." She may be small, but she sure gets there! Stonewall Jackson claims "Liz" next year and later, Hollins. We sure wish her the best of luck in whatever she undertakes.

VIRGINIA DALPHENE DAY

G. C.; Varsity Basket Ball, '25-'26, '26-'27; Vice President G. A. A.; Athletic Manager S. C.; Monogram Club

Our "most athletic Senior." Do we appreciate her athletic talent? I'll say we do. True friend, good sport and pep describes "Day." Farmville rates a cute girl they'll be proud of next year. Here's to you, "Jenks."

ROSALIND DE LAMATER

With her, originality holds its sway,
Attractive and dizzy, so they say,
She's witty and snappy
And quite full of pep—
Not so studious—but she's got the rep—
So Ole High's wishes follow her through,
And '27's wishes of success goes to you!

ELIZABETH ESTELLE DeLONG

*Secretary Senior Class; Junior World News Staff, '26;
G. C.; Secretary-Treasurer Glee Club, '27*

Tall, dignified and attractive, describes our "Typical Senior." Elizabeth is one of our most talented Seniors, for she sings, plays the piano and violin, and is a grand writer. Her "A" grades and charming personality give R.-M. W. C. a "jewel."

HELEN MARANDA DENSON

The Class of '27 is fortunate in having Helen. She has dark brown hair and big brown eyes. Helen never burns the mid-night oil, but gets good grades. Her sweet disposition and bright smile have won her many friends at J. H. S. In whatever you undertake, '27's best wishes go with you.

BEUNA M. DIAMOND

Beuna is one of our dark-haired Seniors with a winning personality and makes friends only to keep them. She is a loyal backer of Ole Hi, and the school will surely miss her smile after she has left its portals. May success follow her through.

CECIL ELIZABETH DILLON

Precious gifts come in small packages. That is certainly true of Cecil. Only five feet two, she is one of the cutest in the Senior Class. She always has a word for everyone, and is a friend worth while. Best o'luck from the Class of '27.

GLADYS ELIZABETH DILLON

Girls' Club

Gladys is the dapper little heart-breaker of Hi, so popular with everyone. She is sweet, attractive, good-looking and independent. Gladys has made very good grades at Hi and plans to attend William and Mary next year. After that we guess she'll be successful—as she's always been.

HARRY DONALDSON

*Spanish Club, '26-'27; Literary Society, '26-'27;
Hi-Y, '27*

Blond and good looking. His infectious smile chases all gloom away from Ole Hi. Harry is one of the friendliest and best-liked members of the Senior Class. We feel sure that his "rainproof" disposition and his ability will gain success. Here's to you, Ole Pal.

DOUGLAS FREDERICK DOWDY

Hi-Y '25-'26-'27; Football '25

"Dug" is an all-round good fellow, socially and athletically. He is a good student and knows his stuff in any line. Hi wishes him much success in whatever he may do.

SIDNEY F. DULL

*Jefferson Literary Society, '26-'27; Roanoke Roman,
'26-'27; Acorn Adv. Comm., '26-'27*

To give Sidney up will be a loss to Ole Hi, because we've all grown to know him and appreciate his friendship. He is one of our most popular boy's and a favorite with the girl's because of his blue eyes and light hair. Our loss will be V. P. I.'s gain.

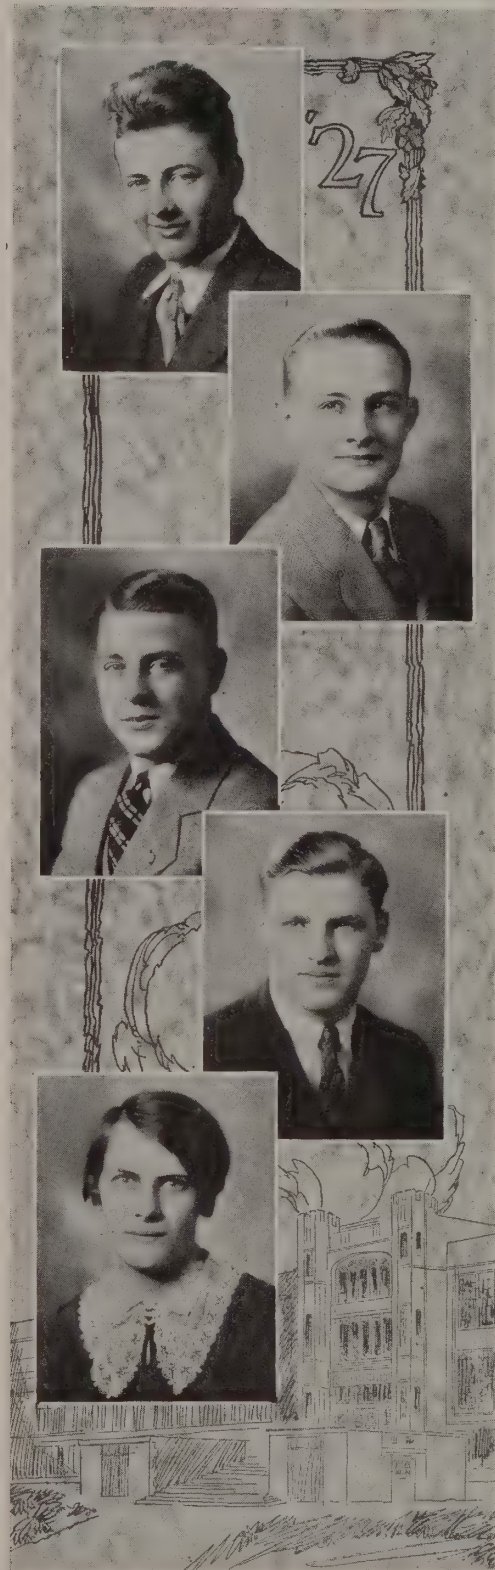

FRANK EAKIN

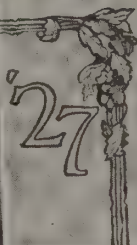

Modest and liked by all.

MARY MYRTLE EASON

*F. C., '25-'26; W. C., '24-'25; G. C., '25-'26-'27;
G. A. A., '26-'27; M. W. L. S., '26-'27; Program
Committee, M. W. L. S., '27; Membership Committee, G. C., '25-'26-'27; "Roanoke Roman"
'25-'26; Editor "Roanoke Roman" '26-'27;
"Junior World News" '26-'27; Senior Volley Ball Team, '26-'27; Winner Civics Prize,
'25-'26; Reporter G. A. A., '26-'27*

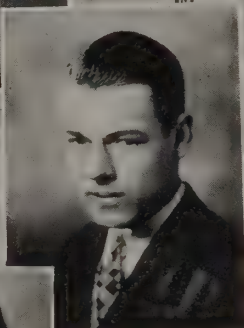

One of the youngest, brightest and most attractive members of the Class of '27—Myrtle! Randolph-Macon will be the lucky school.

JAMES FLOYD EASON

Quiet and reserved—Floyd has gone through his four years at J. H. S. without making much commotion. However the Class of '27 will always remember him as a good sport and a true friend. Floyd has always been greatly interested in nature study and we know we shall hear from him later as a great naturalist.

HARVEY GREENWOOD EDWARDS

Track, '26-'27

Greenwood is better known to his intimates as "Old Reliable." When doing a thing, he holds in a reserve with which he downes all opposition, especially is this evident in the classroom. Because of his love for the great outdoors, Greenwood will make agriculture his profession.

MARJORIE McCLURE ELLIOTT

A contagious laugh, a beaming smile, a bit of noise—enter Marjorie. A will of her own, an opinion to share, ready to help, willing to dare—a blonde with blue eyes and curly bobbed hair. Our loss will be somebody's gain, chooses she to make a home or a career.

JOHN WALTER ENGLEBY

Basket Ball, '26-'27

John is known to his friends as "Ike," especially to some certain ladies. He is quite a ladies' man. "Ike" is very athletic, having made his letter in basket ball and having been a member of the football and track squads. He prefers the Crimson to any other color. He expects to attend Alabama.

MILDRED ELIZABETH FALLS

G. C., '26-'27

Here's about our wittiest, cutest, sweetest, dizziest—why, she is more than that. "the most talented" of the Senior Class. Mildred's ability as a promising young artist and her dependability speak for themselves. Both students and teachers agree that Hi School wouldn't have been complete without "Moodie." Here's success.

FRANCES LOIS FARIES

*French Club, '24-'25; Girls' Club, '26-'27;
Martha Washington Literary Society, '26-'27*

Here she comes! There she goes! Know that dignified Senior of small stature? Always makes creditable grades; has plenty of pep and fun. Her name describes her well for she is a fairy-like person with her winning smile. Luck to you, Lois.

MAYTIE FIELDER

Girls' Club; Home Economics Club

A friend indeed that's Maytie. A capable and charming personality and a sweet, lovable disposition make a rosy pathway for her wherever she goes. She will be missed by many friends when she leaves "Ole Hi," for having spent four years together its hard to part just now.

DOROTHY VIRGINIA FIELDING

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

Ah, here is one we all adore!
She'll help you once and then some more;
Tall and dignified is she,
And quiet when you make her be;
Attractive in both charms and looks;
Undecided occupation,
But who'll always make her station.

PERRY FINE

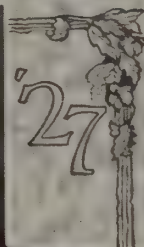

J. L. S.

Law, at the University of Virginia. That's All!

MELVA FLORA

Franklin County can well be proud. Ole Hi can boast some too. But of whom? Melva! That's who. One of the sweetest, dearest Seniors in the Class of '27. Her attractive personality has won her a host of friends and her smile endears her to all. So best wishes from Class of '27, Melva.

RALPH FORBES

Still waters run deep. Ralph is quiet but we all like him. Best wishes.

WINIFRED FOSTER

French Club, '24-'25; Glee Club; Booster Club, '26-'27; Coöperative Council, '25-'26; Secretary Coöperative Council, '26-'27; Membership Committee Girls' Club, '25-'26; Chairman of Publicity Committee Girls' Club, '26-'27; Secretary of Sophomore Class, '25-'26

Who 'tis? With those good-looking eyes and a contagious little smile. Always sought after by—Well—just guess. She is bound to paralyze many other hearts as she has ours. So here's to you, Winnie.

ROGER WRIGHT FOUTZ

Hi-Y, '26-'27; J. L. S., '25-'26-'27; Secretary J. L. S., '26

Roger's allotted time of High School Education has expired to the regret of his host of friends. With the love of his fellow students, drawn to him by his magnetic personality, he enters the portals of a greater learning at V. P. I. Always a worker for a noble cause.

THOMAS STOCKTON FOX

Track Team, '26-'27; Administratum Rerum, Roanoke Roman, '26-'27

Tom is one of our quiet and dignified Seniors who is very capable, an all-round fellow and a good sport. He is a little shy, but dances, plays tennis and is good-looking. Tom is planning to enter Roanoke College next year and then take up law at one of our larger universities.

JESSE CARTER FRANKLIN

Track Team, '26; Assistant Football Manager, '26

Jesse is that attractive Senior that everyone around Ole Hi knows. He is a good dancer and very popular. He is making a speciality of the study of "Wood." Maybe some day he will be a great forester. The University of Alabama claims him next year and we know he will be a success!

MARY DANDRIDGE FRANTZ

Girls' Club

Attractive
Agreeable
Active
Amiable Athletic Adorable

In fact, she is an A number 1 girl.

DOROTHEA MAE FURROW

Who is that vivacious, curly-headed little Senior? Why, Dorothea, of course. She sho can talk and is full of the joy of living. We know she will make a success of the Great Adventure life, for her motto is, "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

BERTHA GALBRAITH

Precious gifts come in small packages. This is certainly true in "Bert's" case. She has beautiful brown eyes and curly hair. She has a lovely personality and is a good friend to everyone who knows her. So here's to "Bert" from the Class of '27.

ROBERT METTEAN GARRETT, Jr.

Class Prophet

A pleasing personality and an engaging smile make Bobby a favorite with both teachers and students. Bobby has quite a bit of literary talent, and he can make a banjo-uke do everything except talk. Bobby stands fairly high in all of his grades. He expects to enter W. & L. next fall.

WILLIAM OSCAR GILES, Jr.

J. L. S., '26-'27

William is a jolly, good-natured Senior. He is quite popular with both teachers and students. He is a good sport and always in a good humor. Everybody has something nice to say about him, for he has left a good record at High School. We're quite sure that he will continue this good record at Roanoke College.

SYLVIA GILLESPIE

Here's to Sylvia, our commercial student! Yes, she says that she will seek a business career, but—our doubts are based upon the fact that she is good looking, sweet, sincere and—well, everybody loves her. We will envy the lucky man. The best wishes of the Class of '27 go with you, Sylvia.

RALPH GLASGOW

We'll tell you a secret. Gilly's been reducing. In spite of this fact he has been invaluable in athletics.

MARY KATHERINE GOGGIN

G. C.; M. W. L. S., '26

Mary! A girl of girls! Is she cute, attractive, friendly, peppy and all that? I'll say she is! She's a pal for any gal. None better than the girl with the sunny smile. Here's to you, old Dear!

ANNA MAE GOOD

"Precious articles come in small packages"—that is true of Anna Mae. She is the little brunette you always see surrounded by a group of friends. Although she is a commercial student, we do not think she will be in the business world long—just ask Jack!

VIOLET VIRGINIA GRANT

Long brown curls, blue eyes, attractive and loveable disposition, has Violet. She is one of the sweetest girls in "Ole Hi." Her smiles bring sunshine and cheer around all whom she meets. She is a commercial student and planning to enter the business world—maybe—best of luck, Ole Pal.

ELIZABETH HARNER GROVE

Girls' Club

"Liz" is just the kind of friend you always want because of her bright disposition and winning smile. She is a good sport, never seems to worry about lessons, etc., but comes out all right in the end. "Hi" wishes her loads of success at Stuart Hall and in her musical career.

JOHN PENDLETON GROVE

*Hi-Y, '24-'25-'26;
Sergeant at Arms, '26-'27*

John is one of our most popular Seniors. He is tall, dark, with blue eyes that laugh at, or with you, all the time. He stands well above the average in classes. John's secret of popularity is his friendship with the boys. We all like him and begrudge his advent from "Hi."

JULIUS HALPERN

Julius is a medium-height, handsome "young strippling" of the Senior Class. He is always "there" with his cheerful, carefree, yet independent disposition. Julius is athletically inclined, and though not inclined to be studious he gets there just the same! Lots o' luck, ole man, at Washington and Lee.

JOHN LEE HARNE, Jr.

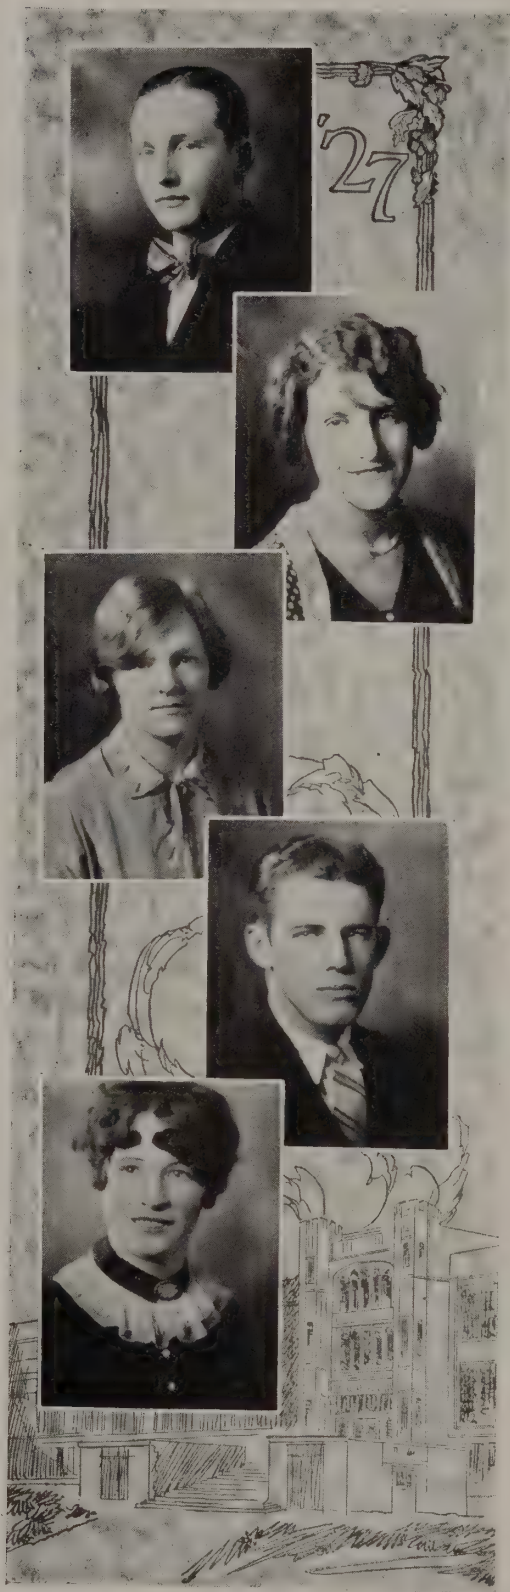

President of Hi-Y, '25-'26, '26-'27; Secretary-Treasurer of Big Brother Club, '26-'27; Football, '27; Basket Ball, '26-'27; Spanish Club, Monogram Club, B. B. C.

Loving friends, respect and a good word from all sing louder than the poets could of personality, worth and magnetism. A real leader for good, an athlete and sportsman, and above all a true friend, Jack has won the esteem and love of '27.

LILLIAN FRANCES HAMMOND

Lillian is that loveable senior with brown hair, roguish brown eyes and dimples. Who could resist her smiles? We see she is taking cooking and studies very studiously. Wonder why? We aren't sure what her plans are, but the best of luck to you, Bright Eyes.

JULIAN ALTON HAMPTON

*Hi-Y, '24-'25; J. L. S., '24-'25-'26; S. C., '25-'26-'27;
Assistant Business Manager, Acorn, '27; Boys' Choral
Club, '26-'27; Orchestra, '25-'26*

Capable, popular, good looking, always smiling—That's Alton!

MARGARET REBECCA HARRIS

Do you know Margaret?
Why of course you do.
She is very attractive and popular too.
Yes, cook and sew, she can,
So just watch out for some V. P. I. man.
Now, off to College I think she will go;
For gym is her hobby you know.
Best of luck to you, Margaret, dear,
From the Senior Class this year.

SADIE HARRIS

*President G. A. A., '27; Girls' Club; Captain Junior Volley Ball, '26; Junior Basket Ball Team, '26;
Senior Volley Ball Team, '27; Senior Basket Ball Team, '27*

Busy here and busy there,
You will find her everywhere,
Cooking—sewing—out at play,
Writing shorthand—G. A. A.
Makes good grades and has fun, too,
There's little that she cannot do,
Yet from morn 'til day is done
She has a smile for everyone.

MARSHALL L. HARRIS

Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27

Marshall is one of the most dependable members of the class, his broad smile and noble character have won him multitudes of friends of boys and girls. He is a true friend, always willing to help with the uttermost problems. Marshall expects to enter Roanoke College next fall, and all of us hate to bid him good-bye.

CORA HATCH

Who says we don't love Red Hair!

BASCIL HATCHER

Treasurer Spanish Club, '27; Hi-Y, '27

Nearly everyone at Hi knows Bascil—That good-looking, attractive and popular Senior, whose assets are sparkling brown eyes and a friendly, winning smile. Who could help liking our Bascil?—And we've heard he's quite a heart-smasher. Bascil "rates" well. We feel he's bound for success.

VIVION HAYMAKER

Bright, sweet, attractive, always ready to lend a helping hand and a true sport. She is a student in the commercial class and is planning to go into the business world when she leaves "Hi." Here's to Vivion, hoping she will make a great success when she leaves "Ole Hi."

IRENE LOUISE HEGE

Girls' Club; Historian Booster Club, '25-'26; Treasurer Sophomore Class, '24-'25; Vice President Senior Class, '26-'27

"Pete"—our sweetest Senior, and she merits her title. For a peppy combination of everything that goes to make a good sport she's right there. Her friendship is a treasure. Randolph "capt" another prize. Success to you, "Pete."

RUTH HELM

G. C.

Ruth is a typical little Senior, dignified, yet mischievous and full of pep. Just an all-around girl Hi hates to lose. She's planning to go to college and we know she'll be happy because of her sunny disposition. Best wishes of Hi go with her always.

HIRAM JEFFERSON HERBERT

Hi-Y '27; J. L. S. '26-'27; Jr. W. N's. '27

Here's to our Class Poet. Hiram has a pleasing personality, is very witty and one of our most capable Seniors. His literary ability is well known in J. H. S. We believe his aspirations and talents sway toward authorship but whatever he may do success is certain, since it is reinforced with all our best wishes.

BEATRICE ESTELLE HILL

G. C.; Glee Club

"Bea" is a sincere, true friend and a girl of excellent mental abilities. She is always willing to help with what ever she is asked to do. She has gained the admiration of all by her sunny disposition. "Bea" is planning to be a stenographer. Hi wishes her the best of luck.

GOVAN HILL

Football, '24-'25-'26; Vice President Big Brother Club, '27; Vice President Hi-Y; Coöperative Council; Monogram Club

Those who have failed to see ole Scareface play tackle have certainly missed it. His willingness to help has caused him to be one of the best liked boys in school. V. M. I. can consider itself lucky in getting a boy of his type.

LEONARD DOUGLAS HILL

Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27; Treasurer, Hi-Y, '26; Spanish Club, '26-'27; Sergeant at Arms, '27; Acorn Advertising Committee, '27

"Dug."

VIOLET AUDREY HOFFMAN

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; F. C.

"To know her is to love her." Brown, wavy hair and brown eyes, of course you all know Violet! She is quaint, charming and petite—the future is sure to have success in store for her—so '27 wishes her the best of luck.

FRANCIS MURRELL HOLDREN

Jeffersonian Literary Society, '25-'26-'27; Spanish Club, '26; Junior World News, '26-'27; Chairman Poster Committee, J. L. S., '26

Francis is one of our poets. His subjects are mostly of love and it seems that he is pretty well acquainted with this subject on account of his many heart attacks. He is a fine debator and has splendid literary ability.

MARY CATHERINE HOLSOPPLE

M. W. L. S., '26; Program Committee, '27; Censor, '27; Literary Letter, '27; G. C., '26-'27; Glee Club, '25-'26-'27; Dramatic, Latin and Athletic Clubs (Hagerstown), '24-'25-'26

Mary Catherine hails from Hagerstown and although she has only been with us a year we have grown to love her and appreciate her friendship. She's capable, good looking and attractive—an ideal girl and "to know her is to love her."

CHARLES HOWARD

Business Manager, The Acorn, '26-'27

Curly brown hair—brown eyes—loads of enthusiasm and pep—plenty of ability—individuality—a good worker when he so desires; "Cholly" is all this, and more, for popularity is his, too. May he be as successful everywhere as he has been in Hi.

EUGENIA HUFF

A true friend to everyone—That's Eugenia. We all know that her charming personality and sweet disposition will make life sunny for her.

Harrisonburg will claim Eugenia next year; but we know that she will succeed in anything she undertakes. We wish you well, dear friend.

PAGE MARTIN HUFF

Page, that tall, blond Senior seen around Ole Hi. He has a winning personality and everybody likes him. He makes wonderful grades but he is certainly not very studious. He is planning to enter the business world after leaving ole Hi and we all know he will make a success as the "big business man." Best o' luck, Page.

RICHARD HUBBARD

Richard is one of our youngest Seniors. He is a commercial student and won a medal in typewriting. Richard is good looking and friendly. He is a member of the Jeffersonian Literary Society. He hasn't decided on his future career, but we know he will be successful in whatever he undertakes.

WILLIAM HENRY HUDDLE

Bill is that tall, handsome, dignified Senior who never has much to say. He is industrious, energetic, sincere and full of capability. All who know him, know him as a good sport and a true friend. Bill expects to attend the University of Virginia and take up surgical work. Here's best of luck to you, Bill.

ALMA FAY HUNT

G. A. A.; G. C.; W. C.; S. C.; President Spanish Club, '27; Secretary "Roanoke Roman," '26-'27; Membership Committee Girls' Club, '26-'27; Secretary Spanish Club, '25-'26

Who is that little blonde that chases around the halls of Ole Hi giving everybody a smile and a "Hi there"? That's Alma. We expect her attractive personality and loving ways to make a great "hit" at Farmville next year.

ELSIE VIRGINIA HURD

French Club, '24-'25; Junior Volly Ball, '26; Senior Volly Ball, '26; Girls' Club, '26-'27; Home Economics, '26-'27; Girls' Athletic, '26-'27

Elsie is very attractive, with brown hair and dark blue eyes. She always has a smile for everyone and is a true friend. Elsie is going to Business College. Best 'o luck from Class of '27.

JOHN HURT

Here's to the sweetest boy in the Class; best of luck to you.

LAVIAL EMORY HURT, Jr.

Football, '25-'26; Basket Ball, '25-'26-'27; Captain, '27; Hi-Y; Monogram Club

"Bus" expects to enter the University of Virginia next fall. May he do as much for the University as he has done for Ole Hi. We will miss you, "Bus."

FRANK JAMISON

Frank has been with us only one year but has proven himself sincere and true to his studies and to his friends. Frank intends to enter the business world and we are sure success will be his.

GEORGE MARSHALL JAMISON, Jr.

*J. L. S., '24-'25-'26-'27; Treasurer J. L. S., '26;
Hi-Y, '26-'27; Track, '26*

George expects to attend V. M. I. next fall where he will take an engineering course. Our loss, V. M. I.'s gain. Here's to you, George.

J. EDWARD JARRELL

Here's to Ed, one of the sweetest boys in the Senior Class. He is always ready to lend a helping hand. Ed always has a sunny smile with which to cheer you when you are blue. Best wishes of the Class of '27 go with him to the University of Alabama.

VIRGINIA JANE JETT

*Sergeant at Arms—Senior Class; Booster Club, '25-'26;
Secretary and Treasurer Booster Club, '26-'27; Secretary
Girls' Club, '26-'27; Good Fellowship, Chairman Girls'
Club, '25-'26; Secretary Wisehefu Club, '24-'25;
Secretary Biology Club, '24-'25*

Here's to the girl with that wonderful personality, who is capable and has loads of friends. R.-M. W. C. claims her next year and they certainly will have a treasure.

VIRGINIA BELL JEFFERSON

Virginia—She symbolizes all that is sweet and friendly. Virginia is attractive, she has lovely wavy hair and blue eyes, her ambition seems to be some one's "Stenog." We know she will be a great success. Luck to you, Virginia.

NINA JEWELL

Here's to you, Nina! The Jewell of our class. We will lose a true artist, but our loss is West-Hampton's gain. Luck to you, Old Pal. From Class of '27.

PAULINE ELIZABETH JOHNSON

For you, Pauline, we do not dare to plan,
We're quite sure that he has taken his stand.
Because you're honest, clean and true,
A good sport thru and thru,
A send-off to do your best,
J. H. S. wishes you success.

SHIELDS JOHNSON

Sophomore Class Reporter; Junior Class Reporter; Secretary J. L. S., '26; Vice President J. L. S., '26; Corresponding Secretary J. L. S., '27; Program Committee Hi-Y, '27; Chairman Program Committee J. L. S., '26; Chairman Poster Committee J. L. S., '25-'26-'27; Editor Roanoke Roman, '26-'27; Roanoke Roman Representative, '26; Assistant Editor Junior World News, '26-'27; Junior World News Staff, '25-'26; State Declamation Representative

DORIS JONES

G. C., '26-'27; E. C.; C. C.; S. C.

We have always wondered why "Gentlemen Prefer Blonds." But when we see Doris we cease to wonder. She is a fun-loving girl and as you can see by the elections of this year, she is the biggest bluff. We don't know what Doris is going to do in the future, but we sure can guess!

ROSE TARVER KING

M. W. L. S.; G. C.; H. E. C.; President M. W. L. S., '26; Chairman Program Committee M. W. L. S., '25; Program Committee G. C., '27; Associate Editor Roanoke Roman, '27; Debating, '26; Public Speaking, '25; Coöperative Council, '27; Secretary Home Economics Club, '26; Critic M. W. L. S., '25

"And so on to the end of the chapter."

JONNY WALDEMAR II KLEINFELD

Chairman Junior Ring Committee, '26; President J. L. S., '26; Chairman Senior Ring Committee, '27; Chairman Invitation Committee, '27; Chairman Membership Committee Big Brother; President Boys' Choral Club, '27

A typical Teuton describes Jonny. True, loyal, and friendly with everyone is Jonny. He was twice Acorn representative to Columbia University. We know, as a physical educator, Jonny will succeed.

LOIS HALSTON KLING

*Vice President H. E. C., '25;
Social Committee G. C., '27*

Lois is one of our most capable Seniors. Talk about playing the piano—Lois certainly can play! She makes friends easily, and her many friends at Ole Hi will surely miss her. But what we lose Harrisonburg gains. Good luck.

LOUIS BERNARD LAND

J. L. S., '26

Roanoke College is the place,
Where Louis intends to step a fast pace.
His scholastic rep,
Is upheld with plenty of pep.
A Doctor he is inclined to be,
A success we know we'll see.
Fight your battles hard, until you're through,
Remembering Jefferson Hi's good wishes go with you.

ERNEST LINWOOD LAUGHAN

Big Brother, '25-'26; President, '27; Football, '25-'26; Baseball, '26-'27; Monogram Club, '26-'27; Spanish Club

"Gilly" has made an enviable record during his years at Hi and his departure will be a keenly felt loss to the athletic and social life of the school. We feel certain of his success and popularity at V. M. I.

SUE PROFFIT LAWSON

President Girls' Club, '26-'27; Booster Club; Assistant Circulation Manager Acorn, '26-'27; Executive Committee Junior Class; Treasurer M. W. L. S., '25; Membership Committee Girls' Club, '25-'26; Wisehefu Club, '24-'25

SUE P.

META LAYNE

G. C.

Meta is that cute little Senior who is always making funny remarks. She doesn't burn the midnight oil but she certainly makes splendid grades. Meta is very talented and her winning personality has won her many friends. May you always succeed in anything you do, Meta!

MARVIN LEMON

Track, '24-'25-'26-'27; Captain, '26-'27; Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27; President, '27; Basket Ball, '26-'27; Monogram Club

Marvin is our most athletic Senior. He not only wins honors in the field but honors in the classroom and is a champion winner of friends. Good luck, Marvin.

BERNARD ABNER LEVIN

Basket Ball, '26-'27

A most dignified Senior and one who has won a name, For friends, studies and Basket Ball fame. Good luck, Bernard, in your work, whatever it may be. Jefferson Hi wishes you success at Washington and Lee.

VIOLET LEWIS

G. C.; M. W. L. S.

How one so small could be so capable, attractive, sweet and loveable is one of the wonders of Jefferson Hi. When you are successful out in the world, dear Violet—don't ever forget Ole Hi.

LEWIS LIONBERGER

Hi-Y, '26-'27; Jr. L., '27; Treasurer Senior Class, '27

Here's to our typical Senior, known and loved by all. Good luck to you, Lewis. May your record at Roanoke College be as good as at Ole Hi.

HELEN LONDON

G. C.; F. C.; H. E. C.; W. C.

Girls like her are very few,
Always gay and never blue;
A charming smile both here and there,
Winning friends everywhere.
This is she—but still we'll say—
She's a darn good friend in every way,
A sweet personality she has for sure;
And down in her heart we know she's pure.

HELEN LONG

"Nothing extra for the smile," is Helen's motto. Helen is a sincere friend and is always willing to help you keep smiling. She is one of our most capable commercial students, and is going to be someone's stenog'—maybe. Helen, good luck to you in the coming years, and keep on smiling.

LUTHER LOWE

S. C.

Luther is that good-looking Senior who is always ready for a good time. He is a good sport and well liked by all who know him. Luther claims to be a woman-hater but we know better. Luther will continue his good work at Roanoke College. Best of luck, Luther.

KATHLEEN MAHONE

A rare example of attractiveness, sweetness and personality combined with sympathy, sincerity and a friendship worth winning—That's Kathleen. We do not know Kathleen's plans, but we are expecting great things of you, Kathleen.

GORDON MANGUS

HELEN MARKLEY

Girls' Club

"I jus' mus' get into some devilment." Now, who does that sound like?—Right!—I was sure you'd know it was Helen. She has dark brown wavy hair, blue eyes, plenty of pep and is a grand sport. Helen will go to National Park next year. Best of luck from the Class of '27.

LUDWELL MARTIN

Blessings on thee, Ludwell, dear,
With hair so red and eyes so clear;
Your heart is loving, kind and true,
Your temper is slightly peppery too.
When you leave 'tis someone's gain,
Yet life at school won't be the same.
Ole Hi wishes you luck and joy;
She's glad you're you and not a boy.

FURMAN MATTOX

Furman Mattox as the Senior Class knows him is an all-round good fellow. He is also known for his good looks. Furman is going to Roanoke College this fall though his ambition seems to be a "Dyer." Good luck, Furman, Ole Hi hates to lose you.

MARY LEWIS MAYHEW

G. C.; F. C.; Chairman Decoration Committee W. C., '24-'25;
Class Historian, '27

The epitome of all that is sweet and charming, she possesses all of the sterling qualities of the Ideal Girl, and she has "IT." Mary Lewis has not decided about her future, but may the god's bequeath her their rarest gifts.

LYLE MAYS

Lyle is a good sport, a true pal, and the ideal of our hearts. Lyle is a commercial student, but judging from the way she likes "Good" things she will have more need for a domestic science course. Hoping success will follow you always, Lyle.

ESTHER McCLUNG

Girls' Club, '27; M. W. L. S., '26

If you see a quiet, good-looking, blue-eyed Senior in the halls—that's Esther. Although she has been with us but a short while, her quiet, friendly way and cheery smile have won her lots of friends. Here's to you, Esther!

ALBERT SYDNEY McCOWN

Football, '26; Baseball, '27; Basket Ball, '27; Jefferson Cotillion; Sergeant at Arms

Here's to you "Mac," wishing you much success at V. P. I.

LOLA EVANELL McGHEE

Lola, better known as "Sunshine," is one of the cute little dancing Seniors with brown eyes and black hair. She left us in January and has been brightening the office, as a stenographer, for one of Roanoke's prominent business men. Lola is very popular; but fickle, so look out boys!

LILLIAN PEARL McGHEE

Her she comes, there she goes,
She's a girl that everyone knows,
Full of pep and jolly, too,
A good friend that's always true.
She claims that she's going to work soon
(I think it's in the kitchen, morning, night and noon).
May success always follow her.

ROY MELCHER

Oh, yes! We all know this fellow—medium height, dark curly hair, attractive no end; and he sho does play that piano. Boy! If you've never heard him you've missed a great treat. He enters Georgia Tech next fall, and it is needless to say that his success is assured.

MAJESSIE MILES

Manager Basket Ball, '27; G. A. A. Varsity, '26-'27; Captain Junior Basket Ball, '26; Captain Commercial Team, '27

Lovely auburn hair has she,
Such natural waves you seldom see.
In typewriting, as a rule,
Majessie is the best in school.
Basket ball can claim her too,
She keeps the ball from falling through.
If Majessie you would tease,
Ask her where she's left Louise.

BEATRICE MITCHELL

A quiet little blond that makes good grades and passes all of her subjects—that's Beatrice. Farmville or Radford is going to claim her next fall. We know she will be an ideal representative of Ole Hi. Her Alma Mater wishes her great success in all she attempts.

GRETHEL AMANDA MONROE

*G. C., '25-'26-'27; M. W. L. S., '25-'26;
R. C., '24-'25; F. C., '26*

Funny little giggle, cute little smile,
Keeps us in mind of "Gret" all the while.
Lots of pep and sense, sweet little ways,
"Gret," you will always win everybody's praise.
"Gret" hopes to go in training up north. "Who's training?"

SUE GRAYBILL MOOMAW

G. C.

Yes, that's Suel! The quiet-looking girl, the pretty blond. But watch out—'cause when Sue says anything it's something real. Sue is unusually popular and attractive. She plans to attend Farmville and, from her record, Farmville's just plain down "lucky."

IDA MOORE

Attractive disposition, and a good sport—That's Idal! Her sweet ways and good nature have won her many friends. She is one of our January graduates and has already started her career in a lawyer's office. The Class of '27 wishes her success.

THOMAS REESE MOORE, Jr.

*Student Council, '24-'25-'26-'27; Acorn Staff, '26-'27;
Vice President Orchestra, '25-'26; President
Orchestra, '26-'27*

Tom the most talented boy in the Senior Class. Nuff said! When a difficult task looms ahead, Tom is immediately selected, because his ability creates confidence to the nth degree.

WILLIAM ELLIOTT MORGAN

*Coöperative Council, '25-'26; President Coöperative
Council, '26-'27; Junior Hi-Y, '24-'25; Secretary
Hi-Y, '25-'26; Treasury Hi-Y, '26-'27; Big Brother Club, '26-'27; Football Squad, '26;
Baseball, '27*

"Actions speak louder than words." So "Wee Willie," here's wishing you the same success at V. M. I. you've had at High School.

MINNIE MUNDY

G. C.

"Pretty little, sweet little, shy little girl"—That's Minnie. Few have been able to resist her twinkling brown eyes. With all her charms, she is a good student. We can predict for her the biggest and best in life.

GARDNER ADAMS MUNDY

*Manager Football Team, '26; Assistant Manager
Baseball, '26*

Gardner is one of Hi's well-known and well-liked boys. He is very popular, witty, attractive, and a grand sport. He plans to attend V. M. I. next year and then he'll probably take up "Mason'ry." May success be yours, Gardner!

OLA SELINA MURRAY

G. C., '27

Sweet, pretty and attractive—That's Ola. Ola does not "Hurt" herself studying, but she always comes out on top. By her pleasant smile and winning ways she has won a host of friends at Ole Hi. Whatever her future may be, the Class of '27 wishes her success.

AUSTIN R. NEAL, Jr.

Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27; J. L. S., '25

Don't we hate to lose Austin? That good-looking, happy-go-lucky, blond who has won his way into all our hearts—yes, more each "Day." My! we hate to give him over to Hampden-Sidney, but we know he'll be a success!

NANCY NORMA NELMS

Boosters, '25-'26-'27; Girls' Club, '25-'26-'27; Vice President G. C., '26-'27; Membership Chairman G. C., '26-'27; Wisehefu Club, '24-'25; Glee Club, '26-'27; French Club, '25-'26

Here's to a real sport—the sweetest disposition—serious student and loyal pal. Always in for a good time, ever thoughtful of others, and a big ray of sunshine. Farmville's gain is our loss.

GUY HAYMAN NEWCOMB

Guy is a small Senior with brown eyes and black hair, and always carries a smile. He is claimed by the Commercial Department and is very studious. He is entering the business world next year and much success to you.

FRANCES ALDEAN NICEWARNER

Frances came to us from Springfield, Ill., and Ole Hi was certainly lucky to claim her as a student. Frances is very studious and her grades show it, too. She is very attractive and her wonderful personality has won many friends for her. Harrisonburg claims her next year. So here's to you, Frances!

OPAL LOYISE NICHOLS

Vice President Home Economic Club, '27

Opal is our brunette who we all love and admire. She is ever ready to lend a helping hand and has thereby made many friends. She claims she's going to be a "Stenog" but we have our doubts about this. Best o'Luck, Opal.

ALLAN COMER OTEY

*Literary Society, '24-'25;
Biology Club, '24-'25*

Allan is one of our quiet, studious Seniors, who is always ready to extend a helping hand. He is small in stature but big in spirit and never becomes angered or prejudiced. Allan's friends will vouch for him anywhere. We know he will succeed at Roanoke College as he has at Hi.

CARLTON LEE OULD

*Hi-Y, '25-'26-'27; Orchestra, '25;
Literary Society, '25*

Carlton is that tall, attractive boy with the "ketchin'" smile and so many friends. He is a shining star in all his classes and is as popular with the faculty as with the pupils. Roanoke College claims him in September. His ambitions run in the line of surgery and we have no doubts about his future.

MARY VIRGINIA OVERSTREET

M. W. L. S.

Who is this tripping up with such a winning smile and such bewitching brown eyes? It is Virginia, of course—one of the best and truest friends we have ever known. Virginia has made an excellent school record and we predict wonderful success for her in the commercial world.

ROBERT JOHNSON OVERSTREET

*Secretary Science Club No. 11, '25;
Track, '25-'26-'27*

Just Bob.

AUDREY OWEN

G. C.

"No brains, but!" Nature always provides, and with auburn hair and such blue eyes what does one need with brains. Dance—whoo! and let me tell you—you can't keep a duck under water. May bad luck follow you all your days but never overtake you, Audrey.

HAZEL VIRGINIA OWEN

G. C., '26-'27; Glee Club, '26-'27

Who's the girl with the brown eyes and hair? Why! that's Hazel, the best-looking girl in the Senior Class. Hazel is loved by all, especially—? She and "Little Twinkle," who are the best of friends, intend to be "somebody's stenogs." May you climb the ladder of success, Hazel.

JAMES ROBERT PAGE, Jr.

Radio Club; Science Club No. 1; Jeffersonian Literary Society; Secretary Radio Club, '25; Secretary Science Club, '25; Hi-Y, '25; Hi-Y Program Committee, '26; Chairman Hi-Y Program Committee, '26; Chairman Program Hi-Y Committee, '27; Secretary Hi-Y; Manager Track

"Hey, Bob! got any 'Beech-Nut'?"

EVELYN MURIEL PARRACK

G. C.; G. A. A.; M. W. L. S.

Golden hair, blue eyes, and pink cheeks describe Evelyn. Evelyn is certainly a true-blue friend. She has a sweet disposition and is liked by everyone. She is rather talented in drawing, is a very interested athlete and an all-around good sport. Hi's best wishes attend her always.

HARRY LESTER PATSEL

A small, quiet Senior with black hair and a most cheerful disposition, such is Harry. He is a very studious commercial student and his good grades are his assets. Next year he enters the business world and we all know that he will make a success. Best o' luck, Harry!

LUCY WALKER PAYNE

G. C.; G. A. A.; G. G. C.

Lucy is the individual girl of medium height with the black hair and dancing blue eyes. Her winning personality and sweet disposition have made her popular here. Her grades—she makes 'em. Her hobbies are music, athletic sports and dancing. Our loss is Southern College's gain.

LESTER PEARSON

CATHERINE PEDIGO

*M. W. L. S.; Girls' Club;
G. A. A.; Senior R. C.*

Catherine hailed from Bluefield and their loss was our gain. She has won many friends by her good nature and winning smile. Catherine plans to go into the business world, and Ole Hi wishes her the best of luck in anything she undertakes. Here's to you, "Cat."

ERNEST PENDLETON

*Baseball, '25-'26-'27; Basket Ball, '25-'26; Captain, '26;
Football, '25-'26; Hi-Y; Big Brother Club, '25-'26-'27*

"Buck" has made an enviable record in athletics in High School. His ready smile and cheerful personality won him many friends among both boys and girls, and also the "most attractive boy in the Class." Here's to you, "Joe."

MARY KEENE PENN

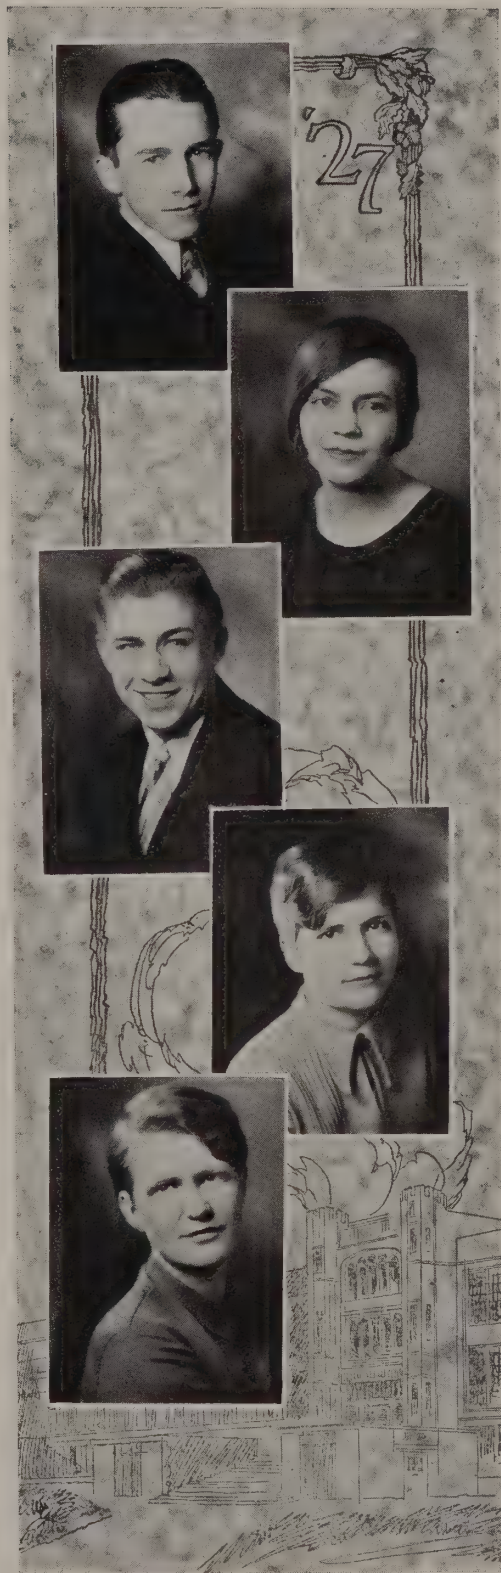

G. C.

Why introduce Keene? She's that cute, attractive Senior that you always look at twice! The gym seems to hold a fascination for Keene—No wonder!—cause she's a good athlete. Hi will realize a large gap after Keene leaves—Best to you, Keene!

MARINE VIRGINIA PETERS

*Service Chairman G. C., '25-'26-'27; Booster Club,
'25-'26-'27; Vice President, Coöperative Council, '26-'27;
President, Wisehefu Club, '24-'25
She's an all-round girl, and quite full of pep;
Attractive and cute, and has a good rep.*

So here's to "Chunk," may she find the success at Brenau that she has had at "Ole High School."

ANNIE VIRGINIA PETERS

Annie is quiet and capable, and loved by all who know her. She is an excellent student and always ready to lend a helping hand. One that smiles and never sighs; the friend you'll want to win.

MARIAN WINIFREDE PETTUS

G. C.

"Gentlemen prefer Blonds"—of course they do. Who wouldn't when there's such an attractive, sweet and good-looking one as Marian? Her graduation will be a loss to Hi and though we do not know where she is "Going" next year the Class of '27 wishes her luck.

LEO PLATT

Leo is the tall, handsome "Fritz Kriesler" of the Senior Class. A pleasing personality, an attractive smile, and a scholarly mind, when mixed with a bit of inherent wit, make him a friend to all, an enemy to none. Roanoke College may well be proud of her "to-be-student."

RICHARD BUNTING PLEASANTS

"Dick" is that good-looking, blue-eyed Senior, rather tall and possessing a wonderful personality. He is very witty and bubbling over with life. "Dick" makes friends on every hand and seems to be in love with (?). He plans to attend V. P. I. next year. Success to you, "Dick."

MARY DELL POFF

G. C.

Of course you know Mary, one of our sweetest, most attractive Seniors. She is always smiling, has a pleasant word for everyone and is always ready to help. Your many friends at Ole Hi hate to lose you, Mary, but our best wishes will be with you at Hollins.

BLANCHE POFF

Sweet and kind with winning ways, a good all-round sport, who believes in a good time as well as good grades—that's Blanche. She is a member of the M. W. L. S. and the H. E. Club. She is graduating from the Commercial Department and intends to do the thing least expected. Best o' luck, Blanche!

GLADYS MAE PREAS

G. C.; H. E. C., '27

We all know Gladys as a good pal and sport, her main characteristic is making friends and keeping them, especially one certain party, who bears the initials of "O.T." The Commercial Department claims Gladys, where she has proven herself an efficient and earnest worker. May success and happiness be hers as she embarks upon the Sea of Chance or Matrimony—Which? Best of luck, Pal of our High School days.

BRUCE POWELL

Quiet and unassuming, Bruce is everyone's friend.

WILLIAM POWELL

Better known as "Billy."

WILLIAM GARMAN PROFFIT

Garman is that dark-haired Senior of medium height, good looking, good natured, studious and full of pep. He graduated in the mid-term. Garman is interested in mechanical drafting and is going to take up that work. We know that he will be successful and the Class of '27 wishes him the best of luck.

GEORGIE MAY RAINEY

G. C., '27; M. W. L. S., '25-'26;
Acorn Staff, '27

Here's to one of the sweetest, most attractive and popular girls in the Senior Class. Could you ever forget that wonderful smile? Hardly! Witty? Yes!—But that's not all. She is beautiful and has brains galore. The one word, Personality, describes "Irish Ray's" versatile character.

VIRGINIA FORBES RANKIN

Acorn Staff; French Club; Girls' Club; Roanoke Roman;
Manager of Junior Basket Ball, '23; Captain, '24;
Wisehefu Club; Social Chairman, '23

She may be Virginia to some—but she is "Ginna" to us. "Ginna" is a mixture of brain, pep and popularity—a blond and her personality has won hearts of friends around Ole Hi. Any College will be lucky to claim her.

EDWARD CLEVELAND REED

Heres to "Ed," one of Hi's most collegiate Seniors! "Ed" is right out there when it comes to personality, wit, attractiveness and popularity. Needing a splended sport? We'll name "Ed"! "Ed's grades have been unusually good and he intends to study Law after attending V. M. I. May success always be yours, Ed!

VIRGINIA MILLER REID

H. E. C.

Ginia, otherwise known as "Mickey," is that smiling, jolly and well—just a little bit sarcastic—Senior that Ole Hi will greatly miss but glad of the fact that we claimed her for four happy years. She is a sincere friend and pal, once a friend always a friend. Mickey is one of our commercial graduates and we know from past records she will make some man a dandy—stenog (?). Loads of luck to you, Mickey!

FRANK REYNOLDS

Our only Flyer. May you fly high in life and always make a safe landing. "Contact!"

LUCILLE VIRGINIA RHODES

Lucille is one of the sweetest girls at Ole Hi. She has black hair and beautiful brown eyes. Lucille doesn't talk much but when she does say something everyone listens to her. Best of luck, Lucille, and may you be successful in everything you undertake.

PAUL HEILIG RHODES

As a student, Paul is in a realm of his own, and the Senior Class is very fortunate to acclaim him as a loyal brother. A more self-reliant young man cannot be found in the entirety of the student-body. Generous and a fertile brain. Paul has earned his many laurels.

LAURA RIFE

Laura is a Senior who graduated last fall. She has a very kind disposition and anyone who associates with her, loves her. She is very intelligent and succeeds in anything she undertakes. We hope Laura will have the best of luck in anything she undertakes in life.

DAN WENTWORTH RICHARDS

*Radio Club, '24; Roanoke Roman Rep, '25-'26;
J. L. S., '26-'27*

Dan—one of the best-natured and jolliest fellows in our Class. He has an unusual but attractive personality and has proven himself a good sport and a true friend to all who know him. Dan's interest lies in literary work and he is one of Hi's best debators. We feel certain that he will attain the heights of success at Roanoke College.

CHARLOTTE RICHARDSON

F. C., '24-'25; Glee Club, '26-'27; President Booster Club, '26-'27; Treasurer Girls' Club, '25-'26; Social Chairman G. C., '26-'27; Ring Committee for Junior Class, '26

"Charlie" is sweet, pretty and her personality will carry her anywhere. She has not decided yet where she will attend college, but best o' luck to you, Charlotte.

MYRA RICHARDSON

"To know her is to love her." So demure and sweet that she is a favorite with everyone. She is taking Domestic Science, we notice and wonder why? But whatever Myra does the best wishes of the Class of '27 go with her and wish her "bushels" of luck.

CLARA DEAN RILEY

Spanish Club

Clara's sweet smile and affable disposition has won for her a host of friends. Her personality stands out above others and the secret is she aims high. We do not know what she means to do but we are sure she will succeed.

NATALIE HORTON ROBERTS

Girls' Club; French Club, '26; G. A. A.

"A daughter of the gods—Divinely tall and most divinely fair."

A laugh, a cheery word—and here comes Natalie! Athletic, good-natured, popular, capable, and peppy. We all love her!

LELIA LOTTIE ROBERTSON

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; G. A. A.

With her long light hair, grey eyes and cheerful smile, Lelia makes a very dignified Senior, she is calm and reserved and very studious, and takes an interest in all activities of Ole Hi. A lovely friend certainly. The best wishes of Ole Hi go with her always.

LEILA FRANCES ROBERTSON

Girls' Club, '27

Well, who is this? Surely you know Frances. She is one of the sweetest and most loveable girls in the Senior Class. If you don't know her just say "Pete" or "V. P. I." and you'll soon hear from her.

Frances is a hard-working student, also musical. She expects to study Pipe Organ at Hollins College next term. Best wishes, Frances.

REBECCA ELIZABETH ROOT

M. W. L. S., '25-'26-'27; Girls' Club, '26-'27; Vice President M. W. L. S., '26; Secretary M. W. L. S., '27; French Club, '26

Elizabeth—"A daughter of the gods—divinely tall and most divinely fair." With winsome smile, laughing eyes and long brown hair. We hope in life what e'er you do, your dreams of fame will all come true.

CLARENCE ROUTH

Better known as "Babe." He never was known to study but he always seems to get there. His aspiration leans towards engineering and he will begin his preparation for this at V. P. I. He's tall, good looking and has a winning personality. May success be yours, "Babe."

ERNEST LIONEL ROWELL

E. L. finished in January. We miss this tall, dignified Senior. Grey eyes, dark hair and a typical "Lady Killer." E. L. expects to go to Va. Tech. next year and will "bunk" with "Sunshine," his High School buddy. If these two fellows get together again V. P. I. better look 'em up. Success and the best of wishes to you, Old Man.

LOUISE DANFORTH SEE

Brown hair, blue eyes, a sweet, attractive personality and a good friend always—that's Louise. She always has a pleasant smile and cheery word for you. With her winning ways, we know she will succeed at college next year. Best of Luck.

SAMUEL DOUGLAS SHACKLEFORD

Here's to the orator. Douglas has made quite a name for himself by proving his ability in the literary field. "Hi" is very proud of his success in the "Southwestern Virginia Oratorical contest." Douglas is one of our best examples of old-fashioned Southern courtesy and chivalry. Success to you!

JOHN JOSEPH SHEAHAN

Orchestra, '24-'25-'26-'27

Everybody knows Jack! Popular? Yes! Good looking? Yes!! While at Hi he has proven a fine student, so we know he will make good at V. M. I. Hi's wishes for you, Jack, are that you will succeed in everything you undertake.

GRACE SHELTON

Everyone knows Grace, because of her sweet disposition. Everywhere we see her we see a smiling face and she is always in a good humor. Grace is one of our commercial students and her grades show that she is making good. Ole Hi wishes her success and happiness ever.

MARSELENA SHELTON

Girls' Club

"Precious things always come in small packages." Marselena is the little light-haired, blue-eyed girl who has won such a big place in our hearts. Her winning smile, wistful and laughing eyes, sweet and unselfish disposition, capability and sterling worth, have made us realize what a treasure we have.

ALICE MARGARET SHELTON

*G. A. A.; G. C.; G. G. C.;
M. W. L. S.*

Really Alice needs no introduction at all. She is well known around Ole Hi for her drawing, singing, athletics and—her beautiful curls. Alice can't just decide what she will do after leaving Hi, but we're sure she will be a success in whatever she may undertake.

SARA OTTOWAY SHIELDS

S. C.; G. C.; M. W. L. S.; W. C.; World Fellowship Committee G. C., '25-'26; Program Committee G. C., '26-'27

Sara is a real student and a true friend, willing to lend a helping hand. Full of fun, ready for a good time. Sara has dark hair and is especially fond of an attractive "Bob." Whatever she may do, '27 wishes her luck!

RUTH MADOLYN SHIVELY

"Precious things always come in small packages."

She's the girl that makes a hit,
Has what Elynor Glyn calls "it,"
Never mad, always gay,
Just a girl that wins her way.
Never worrying, always free,
So just what more could a girl be?

MOIR LEWIS SHOCKLEY

Studious, jovial, congenial is Moir in a nutshell.
Wherever he may be seen there is with him his everlasting smile which glows with sincerity. Moir seems to have a mechanical turn and a talent to construct. In the fall he will prepare himself for a career of civil engineering.

INEZ SLAYDON

That pretty little brunette we see always with a smile,
For which Odell, Jack or Clarence would walk a mile,
For one sweet favor of that smile,
But she hasn't decided yet which she would let win her
After walking so far, but all the way, every day.
We will miss her sweet smile in every way in the following days to come.

ELSIE SLAYDON

Precious gifts come in small packages. This is certainly true in the case of Elsie. She has pretty blue eyes and brown hair. Her good disposition and winning personality have won for her many friends in Ole Hi. We know we shall miss her very much. Best of success.

HELEN ELIZABETH SMITH

Helen is one of our most popular Seniors. She is a fine student and makes a hit with everyone she meets. Helen will attend Farmville next fall to learn "To do unto others as they have done unto her." Ole Hi knows Helen will be a success and wishes her the best of luck.

MATTIE LOU SMITH

G. C.

A true friend, a good sport—Mattie Lou! She's quite an artist, too—and is always ready to use her "art" to help. Her sunny disposition has won her many friends. Along with her "pep" and "wit" she has made good grades. May all your dreams come true, Mattie Lou.

RUBY PAULINE SMITH

Pauline is a good example of why gentlemen prefer blonds. She is a typical girl with a sweet disposition. She is quiet and willing to help anyone. Pauline is very fond of a certain "Carr." Hi's loss will be very great when they lose such a good sport as Pauline. Good luck to you, "Polly."

MILDRED MARGUERITE SNIDOW

G. C.

Mildred is sweet and demure, and has brown hair, hazel eyes and a lovely face. We certainly received a good student when Mildred came from West Virginia two years ago. She is a true friend and a good sport. Hi wishes her success at Farmville next year.

THOMAS ARCHIE SNOW

Plenty of school spirit and capability, fittingly describes our brown-eyed Senior. At present he is not much of a "ladies' man" but lucky will be the girl who weaves her net around him. Tom is an ardent supporter of all High School sports. He is undecided as to his future, but we wish you best of luck, Tom, in all your enterprises.

FRANCES DIDCOCT SNYDER

G. C.; Wisehefen Club; M. W. L. S.; French Club; Editor-in-Chief, The Acorn, '26-'27; Winner Second Place U. Va. Short Story Contest, '26; Censor M. W. L. S., '25; Acorn Staff, '24-'25-'26

"Frances, always bubbling over with joy, individuality, ability, wit and life—a combination of personality and fascination."

THESTLE REBEKAH STANLEY

M. W. L. S.; G. C.; Glee Club; H. E. C.; W. C., '24; G. C., '25; Program Committee, '26-'27; Glee Club President, '26-'27; M. W. L. S., '25; censor '26; President, '27; H. E. C. Publicity Secretary, '26-'27; Junior World News, '26-'27; Winner of Literary Letter, '27; Rep. Public Speaking, '27

Magnetic personality, capable, talented, clever and popular—That's Thestle. Her record speaks for itself. Thestle possesses a wonderful voice and will study vocal and dramatic art next year at Cincinnati Conservatory.

CLYDE STANLEY

Here's the good-natured boy, always ready to lend a helping hand in the office.

DURWOOD STANLEY

Durwood is the best-looking boy in the Class of '27. With his vocal ability and his ready wit he has won many friends among his classmates. As a dancer few are his equal. We will loose him to V. P. I. next year if Keith doesn't claim him first.

DAISY RANKIN STATON

To say what Daisy has meant to her class and school is almost impossible. Daisy is one of the sweetest girls in the Senior Class and always has a smile for everyone. Nothing is too much trouble. She is always willing to lend a helping hand. We wish her success.

RUTH ST. CLAIR

Glee Club, '25-'26-'27; French Club, '25-'26; Home Economics Club, '27

Ruth has not been with us very long, but she has made a good record in this short time. She has taken great interest in the Glee Club activities and has made good in her classes. Ruth is not planning to enter school next fall, but the Class of '27 wishes her the best of success in whatever she undertakes.

JOHN ROBERT STIFF

Baseball '26

Robert, better known as "Bob," is one of our most handsome Seniors, and most attractive, too! No one knows how we missed him after he finished in January. "Bob" expects to enter the University of Richmond in September, and we are sure he will attain success there. Here's to "Bob"! Hi wishes him luck always.

JULIAN STINSON

We all know that quiet, independent Senior with a smile that would melt most any heart. Although he's not over-studious he gets there just the same, and is liked by all of us. Julian intends to be a "Business Man." Here's to you, Julian, may success go with you.

LETITIA STOKES

The stately looking girl walking around the halls of "Ole Hi" is none other than "Tish." She is sincere and always willing to lend a helping hand. "Tish" has made hosts of friends since she came to us from "Stewart Hall."

EDRIE ANNE TAYLOR

M. W. L. S.; G. C.

An interesting "little" Senior, whose smile has won our hearts. Full of fun and pep is she. But that is not all, her grades are good, too. Edrie is going to Business College next fall, and we know she will make a good stenographer. Best of luck, Edrie.

HAZEL TAYLOR

One of our smallest and most attractive Seniors in the Class, Hazel has won a host of friends around Hi with her winning smile and sweet disposition. We do not know Hazel's plans for the future, but we are sure she will prove an asset to any man.

JENNIE ELIZABETH TEMPLE

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; Junior World News Staff, '26-'27;
Winner Literary Letter, '26-'27; Roanoke Roman
Staff, '25-'26; World Fellowship Committee G. C.
'27; Treasurer M. W. L. S., '26; Chairman
Program Committee M. W. L. S., '27

By her smile we know her. "Jet" possesses charming personality, combined with intellectual ability, pep, and good sportsmanship. The esteem won here means success anywhere. Best of luck at Farmville, Elizabeth.

EDWIN TERRELL

Those who have never met Eddie have missed a treat. True blue, four square and a yard wide. He is good looking and one of the best of friends. Whether W. & L. or the University gets him is, as yet, an undecided question, but here's our best for you, Ed.

CLARENCE RAYMOND TESTERMAN

"A Good Heart's Worth Gold"

Clarence is one of our quiet and friendly Seniors. We sincerely regret that we have had Clarence with us but this year, and wish it had been more. We all know that he will make a success in any undertaking that he might follow. May the best of success and the good will of the Class of '27 be with you throughout your life, Clarence.

DORIS MAYBELLE THOMAS

M. W. L. S.; G. C.

Doris has been a great asset to Jefferson Hi as a loyal supporter of the school activities. She is an ideal representative of the Class of '27. We will miss her around Ole Hi. May the best of luck be yours, Doris.

MIRIAM FRANCES THOMAS

*"Just the girl you can't forget,
The kind you're awfully glad you met."*

Miriam is noted for her good disposition and for being a good sport. She graduated in January from the Commercial Department and has already begun her career in an office. Hi wishes her success.

BEULAH THOMAS

Spanish Club, '26; Girls' Club

Beulah is another of Hi's sweetest girls who can always cheer you with her smile. Her winning personality has gained for her many friends. Besides taking a part in school activities she manages to make good grades. Beulah expects to enter college next year. Ole Hi wishes her best of luck.

LULA THOMPSON

G. C.

Lula is one of the most attractive girls in the Senior Class. To meet her is to love her. Many of us are going to miss a sweet, generous and loveable friend when Lula leaves us to go to Virginia Intermont. Lula, we are proud of you and know you will be a success.

VIOLA PEARL THOMPSON

G. C.

Here comes the pretty Senior with the curly golden hair. Viola has a wonderful disposition which has won her many friends. She is another reason why "gentlemen prefer blonds." Viola expects to attend Virginia Intermont next year. Best wishes from the Class of '27 go with you, Viola.

ELIZABETH THOMPSON

She might be Elizabeth to some, but she is "Liz" to us. In "Liz" we find a combination of personality, pep and brains. We have surely missed her cheerful smile since she finished Christmas. We all love you, "Liz," and wish you the best of luck in anything you undertake.

ELIZABETH TINNELL

Elizabeth is that quiet Senior who everyone falls in love with because of her kind and loving ways. "Liz" will some day be a great musician of whom Ole Hi will be proud. At William and Mary may success be yours.

ELIZABETH ARMISTEAD TROUT

Reporter G. C., '26-'27; Associate Editor Roanoke Roman, '26-'27; G. C., '24-'27

"Liz"—our winsome dancer, one of the most attractive Seniors! Possessing unusual ability and undeniable charm. She has plenty of what Elinor Glyn calls "IT," and she uses "it" to advantage with both sexes. Don't we just love her?

RUTH CARLIN TURNER

Here's to Ruth, so dear,
An attractive Senior in the Class this year;
Sweet, capable and gifted, too,
This is Ruth, through and through;
She has many a friend,
And lots of them are new.
We hope that she will win fame,
Wherever she goes, with her little "Obenchain."

CHRISTINE TURNER

G. C.; M. W. L. S.; Chairman Poster Committee
M. W. L. S., '27

Cheerful
Helpful
Ready
Individual
Sweet
Trustworthy
Industrious
Neat
Energetic

Gray-eyed, black-haired—one of that artist crowd. A good friend—our Christine. We wish her luck at Hollins next year where she will study music.

GLADYS ROBNETTA WADDELL

All of us know "Toots" with her dancing brown eyes and sweet smile for everyone. To know her is to love her and we wish her success in the Business World as a "stenog." But "Toots" won't be a "stenog" long. No, not until the "sheiks" are all dead.

LUCYE WALKER

Her most obvious characteristics are her bright smile and her good disposition. She is thoroughly unselfish and is always ready to help the other fellow. Lucye has given quite an impetus to the study and practice of dramatic reading. She is an all round good sport and believes in having a good time; but, above all else, she has ideals and lives up to them.

WILLIAM BERTON WALSHE

William is one of the smartest boys in the Senior Class. Although he does not take much interest in school activities he has many friends. He is never seen studying but usually makes very high grades. William has not definitely decided what he will do when he leaves us. We are sure he will be successful in whatever he undertakes.

CARRIE WARD

M. W. L. S.; Home Economics Club; G. C.

Carrie came to us during her Senior year from Omaha, Nebraska. She brought with her the snap and pep of the West. She is a good student, good mixer, and a good friend. In your travels, Carrie, always remember your Southern friends!

HARRY RAY WEBBER

Quiet, but fun-loving and true,
This, Ray, is a toast to you.
A stenographer you intend to be,
And a fine one you'll make, no doubts have we,
For your grades and your acts one thing does show,
Whatever you start you will surely make go.
And he just loves to visit Junior Cooking Class.

IRENE WEBLEY

Irene is a good friend to all and will help anyone in need. She is quiet and very serious. Her record at Ole Hi is a fine one. She makes good in everything she undertakes, and is liked by everyone. Irene expects to study at Radford next year for teaching. Best o' luck

HELEN KATHERINE WEST

It's Helen, that sweet, dark-haired girl roaming around the halls of Ole Hi with a winsome smile and always lending a helping hand. She is planning to go to National Business College next year, but we think it will be a "college for two." Best of luck, Helen!

DOROTHY BONNER WHEELER

M. W. L. S.; G. C.; S. C.; Vice President
Spanish Club, '27

A sweet manner and splendid grades characterize our Dorothy. She is one of our most capable Seniors. Just enough student, just enough fun to make her a very attractive "school-marm." All her friends wish her the best o' luck at Harrisonburg.

EARL JAMES WHITE

With good grades and liked by all Earl has gone through these four years of Jefferson Hi always ready to lend a helping hand to all. Earl has proven himself one of the most capable Seniors in the Class and we know he will make a big success in the career he has chosen in the business world. Good luck to you, Earl, and may everyone know you as do your friends and Classmates of '27.

SAMUEL JENNINGS WHITE

Sam is one of our brown-eyed Seniors with light hair. Such a winning smile and pleasing personality is hard to find. Sam is going to attend V. P. I. next year, even though it is hard to believe. But V. P. I. will profit by the loss of Ole Hi.

FANNIE ELIZABETH WIERINGO

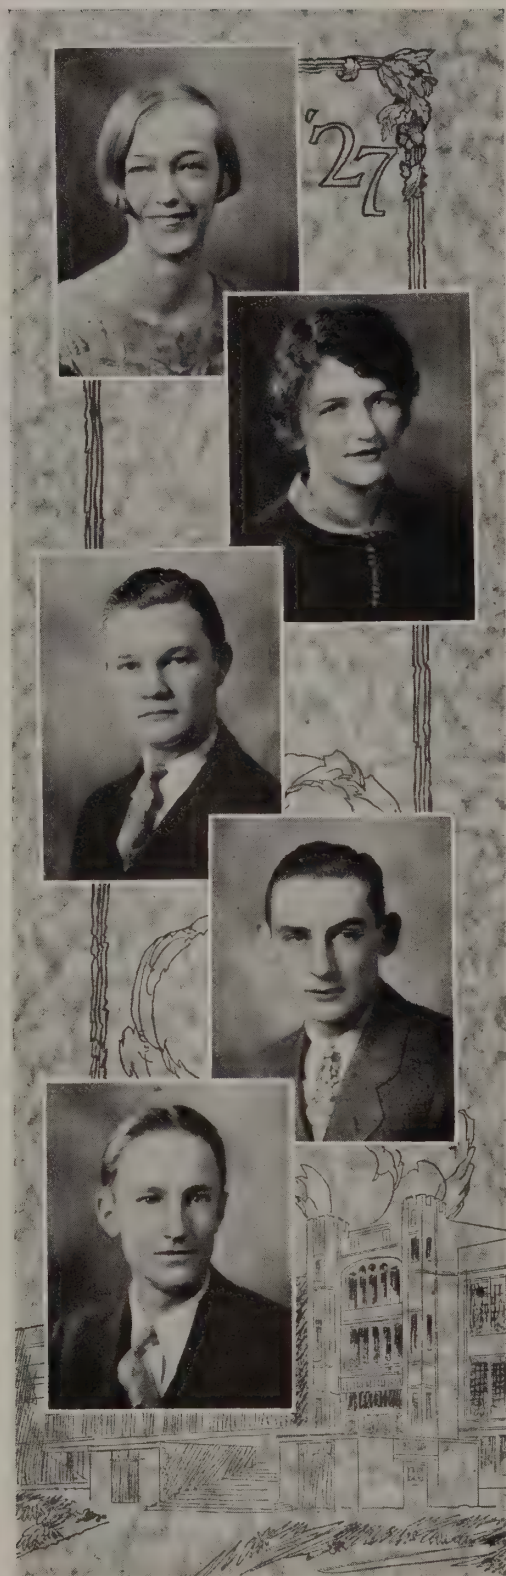

A Spanish Senorita! A dashing, captivating brunette! Beautiful hair? Oh, Boy! Fannie is very popular and a promising young artist. She has a beautiful contralto voice and we expect "heaps" out of her in the future. We extend our best wishes and know she will be a success in all her undertakings.

MABEL BURKS WILLIAMS

W. C.; G. C.

Mabel is just as sweet as she can be,
No one could be more attractive than she.
Her eyes are blue, her hair is brown
And she's a good sport all around.
A stenographer she expects to be
But—take this little tip from me,
In whatever you undertake to do
Hi's best wishes go with you.

CHRISTINE ELEANOR WILLIS

Christine is one of our quiet, shy and reserved Seniors until you know her, then you find her to be quite different. We do not know what Christine intends to do but judging from her desire to walk for "Miles" we are sure she will find happiness. Here's to you, "Chrit."

MARTHA ENGLEBY WOOD

*Girls' Club, '25-'26-'27; Service Committee,
Wisehefu Club, '24; Booster Club, '26-'27*

Here's to the girl who is small and full of pep,
Who for herself has made quite a "rep."
We hear she has a Star but is quite fond of a "Franklin."
Martha, here's best o' luck to you.

JAMES PLEASANT WOODS, Jr.

J. L. S., '25; Hi-Y, '26-'27

"Jim"—or sometimes "Sheik" is one of our most attractive Seniors. Is he smart? Oh my, yes! In dancing he sho knows how to "strut his stuff." Hi dreads to lose its lawyer. But—well, anyway, we wish Jim "bon voyage" on his journey after he leaves High School for E. H. S., next fall.

LEWIS FRANKLIN WOODSON

Hi-Y

Did you ever notice that tall, dignified-looking boy? Well, that's Lewis, but really he is not dignified. Though he doesn't burn the midnight oil he makes excellent grades. He is at present inclined to scientific exploitations, devoting a great part of his time to the study of a Moun (field).

HENRY BOSLEY WOOLF

Hi-Y

*Hi-Y; Chairman Play Committee Senior Class;
"Tis men like me that make the world go 'round"*

Bosley is one of our smart and smiling Seniors. He has brown hair, gray eyes and is tall and slim. He makes grades that are seldom surpassed. He has been with us only one year. He plans to attend college next year, probably Emory and Henry. It's unnecessary to wish him good luck for when there's talent and hard work, good luck will be found, that's Bosley.

MARTHA BEVERLY WORTHAM

Who doesn't know Beverly, one of Hi's most attractive? For Beverly certainly has a great many friends. Hi certainly will lose next year. Best of luck, Beverly, wherever you go!

MARZ GLADYS WRIGHT

Girls' Club

Good looking and attractive—you bet, and as popular as can be! Gladys wears a smile for everyone. She never worries herself about studying but always comes out all right. Gladys is planning to enter the business world. Best o' luck from the Class of '27!

HERMAN BRUCE WRIGHT

S. C., '25-'26; S. C., '26-'27

Herman is quiet and friendly. He never seems to be bothered with too much studying but he generally manages to get through. Herman has not decided on his future career, but we wish him much success in whatever he undertakes in life.

JOSEPHINE PAXTON YEATMAN

G. C., '25-'26-'27; Home Economics Club, '27; Wisehefu Club, '23-'24; M. W. L. S., '25-'26

A sweet disposition and a willingness to lend a helping hand have made "Jo" one of the best-loved Seniors. Capable, a good sport, an attractive personality. Wherever you go next year, Josephine, Hi wishes you the greatest success.

BEATRICE MAUDE YOUNG

It has been said that "A friend in need is a friend indeed," this characterizes "Bea." She is a friend to all and especially to a certain fellow in Ohio. "Bea" is one of our best commercial students and her grades testify that she will make a success in the business world. Old Hi wishes her success and happiness in the coming years, and in whatever she undertakes.

BACKWARD GLANCES

AS we glance retrospectively over the past years of seemingly endless toil, and look ahead to the approaching event of our lives, graduation, we are somewhat startled to realize a feeling of sadness creeping over us, replacing the wish for the time we could leave school and its monotonous routine. Of a certain, our school career is like a mystic maze through which we grope aimlessly. But when we are old we shall look back for a treasured glance on this winding maze and be able to see in it a well-planned path which leads us onward to the top of a hill called "Success."

We have been blessed in the many phases of work presented to the student body by a beneficent community. Who could wish for a finer structure in which to attend school or what better courses of study could be presented than what our own Jefferson High presents? The faculty, above all other influences, stands as the most decisive factor in our training. We know that with some of the best teachers in the country to guide us, our edifice shall not fall.

The Senior Class feels that it can never repay the faculty for its untiring devotion in leading us onward and upward.

We have enjoyed in our high school days many golden experiences, organizing the class after entering the new school building, buying the baby grand piano and our important feeling when it was established on the stage in the auditorium are but slight examples.

But we must go on and, since we must, we wish to express our appreciation for the splendid training and good times we have enjoyed. We expect to use all these experiences as stepping stones to success. Success, like More's "Utopia," may seem to be "nowhere," but, if we strive to climb and grasp the ideal, we shall rise to the heights of the impossible and signal back a message to Jefferson High School—"We still love you!"

SO SHALL IT BE?

I was reading the other day about old Rip and his twenty years' vacation. What a lucky break he made when he partook of that sleeping fluid, thus putting away twenty years of solid sleep whereas he might have been working. If one possessed a little of that substance nowadays, he could give his cares and woes a happy farewell and wish school many returns of the day. With these thoughts running through my mind, of a sudden a feeling of drowsiness passed over me, everything became blurred, then blank—

I found myself thrust suddenly upon the boardwalk of Atlantic City just ten years later. The whirring of the planes overhead aroused in me such a sensation of dizziness that I slipped blindly forward, uncertain of my whereabouts.

The first impulse which came to me was to locate someone whom I knew, as all the faces seemed strange and unfamiliar. With this interest, I was in the act of crossing the street, when I ran headlong into a big, robust cop. Looking up, I saw him to be none other than Fatz Altizer, a former spectacle around old Hi and as big a bluff as ever. He informed me that he had at last reached his long sought ideal of boyhood days, and invited me to accompany him to the courthouse, where he said I would see several old-time acquaintances. It being quite a consolation to know that, for once, I was to accompany an officer of the law of my own accord, I accepted his invitation.

Arriving at the city courthouse, we wandered to the courtroom, where who should I see but Judge J. Carter, holding his audience spellbound with his magnanimous decisions and swoops of the gavel, as he used to do of yore. He was, at this time, presiding over a law suit, Dan Richards, a prominent pawnbroker, having sued Mary Dan Frantz, movie queen, for breach of promise. Shields Johnson was the defendant's attorney, and Doug Shackleford the attorney for the plaintiff.

Frances Snyder, "cub" reporter, was busily engaged in jotting down each emotional trait which was portrayed by the plaintiff and defendant, attorneys and jurors.

Glancing over toward the tear-stricken jury, I saw Tom Fox, who seemed to be leader of that harmonious chorus; he was weeping bitterly. Among a few of the less interested jurors, who, at frequent intervals, gave individual interpretations of a buzzing sawmill were John Bladen, Sydney Dull, Greenwood Edwards, Sam White, Herman Wright, Jack Clark, Douglas Stone and Leslie Calder.

This atmosphere of solemnity soon had its effect upon me, whereupon I made headway toward the exit. On the way out, however, I ran into Austin Neal and Virginia Day, who wore happy smiles, having just been united in the holy bonds of matrimony by John Kleinfeld, justice of the peace. Passing by his office, I saw, standing in line waiting for their turn, Carlton Ould, a noted surgeon, and Sue Lawson, who had formerly been head of the Women's Auxiliary.

Lawrence Brown stood at the office door selling insurance to each male victim as he passed out. He informed me that he would be doing very well but for the "Grove Never-Die Pills," discovered and manufactured by Dr. John Grove, which were quite an obstacle to his insurance sales.

Upon stepping into the street once again, I was confronted by Rose King, now head of the Salvation Army drive since Elizabeth Antrim, her contemporary, had been married. Rose was supported by Ed Bell, who gave the big bass drum a fit, Alton Hampton and Nancy Nelms, who sung those enchanting melodies of old, and Charles Howard, who was taking in the coin.

While trying to evade this group, as I was financially embarrassed, I heard a hefty voice shouting, "Thoity-Thoid Street, East Side." Looking up, I saw Buck Pendleton pushing da clutch for the Rapid Transit Bus Line, who kindly consented to take me to the casino free of charge.

In front of the casino, a beauty contest was being staged; Buck complained of engine trouble, so he parked in full view of the procession.

Suddenly, I heard loud whoops coming from the judges' box on the opposite side, where sat Gardner Mundy, Derwood Stanley and Billy Morgan, each possessing high-powered telescopes.

Needless to say, Martin Burkes, proprietor of the casino, Gillie Laughorn, house detective, and Govan Hill, now a reformer, were present merely to see that the public order was not disturbed.

Meantime, soothing music (?) was rendered by the "Midnight Howlers," for whom Roy Melcher was pianist and Tom Moore, banjoist.

Hiram Herbert, Will Rogers of the day, was tossing hot dogs and pulling wise cracks as each one sold.

Harriet Critz, his colleague, attracted all by her feminine art of chewing gum and the melodious voice with which she advertised the "hot dorgs."

Seeing so many familiar faces, however, has caused somewhat of a divergence from the beauty pageant, which was now passing the judges' box, but I must mention that Basil Hatcher received a black eye from his wife, Vivian Barry, for becoming over-excited.

Here they come! But who's the leader? 'Tis Hazel Owen, the Virginia beauty, in her snow-white bathing suit well contrasting with her coal black hair and dark, sparkling eyes.

She is closely followed by Charlotte Richardson, the attractive representative of Florida, attired in a bathing suit of a conservative red.

Among other former well known beauties of Hi, who were at that moment successfully retaining their reputation, were Verdie Bitterman, Gladys Dillon, Rosalind Delamater, Chunk Peters, Elizabeth Trout, Virginia Jett and last, but not least, Georgie Mae Rainey.

The decision was rendered amid howling protests and flying Coca-Cola bottles, while Marvin Lemon, manager of a Coca-Cola plant, was busily engaged in picking up the bottles.

At this stage of the performance John Hurt, Dean of Roanoke College, Elizabeth DeLong, Dean of Hollins, and Thistle Stanley, Musical Director of Converse, arose from their seats, announcing that the crowd was becoming a bit agitated, whereupon they withdrew and embarked with Frank Reynolds, Ford's most outstanding rival in the manufacturing of airplanes, in his little seaplane.

The whir of the propellers again caused that sensation of dizziness within me, all around me became blurred, then blank—

I found myself sitting quietly by the fire, the book of Rip Van Winkle slipping from my hands.

Having dreamed of all these prophecies to take place ten years later, I was determined to stick around and see how many were to be actually fulfilled.

JUNIOR CLASS

SOPHOMORE CLASS

SENIOR OUTLOOK

WE have come to the last lap of our journey along the path of knowledge. We have successfully left behind our Freshman, Sophomore and Junior years. And now we shall add another and the final link to that chain.

In a sense, Seniors, we are sculptors. Each one of us must produce a work—the work of life. Have we considered this Great Decision?

We must mould and form a reproduction of our lives. Will our sculpture be a masterpiece or a hideous, deformed, misshapen thing?

Will we portray beauty? Will our work be an inspiration to others?

Our finished task will only be as beautiful and enduring as our foundation is strong and firm. We, as Seniors, have had the opportunity to make it so. We have had the chisel of an enlightened sculptor with which to carve our work.

We have now a threshold to cross, which leads to two separate paths. Which shall we choose—the path leading to fame and vain glory or the one leading to lasting beauty? To which shall we dedicate our monuments?

We have had as an inspiration to us the guidance of those who have crossed that threshold.

Let us, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, resolve to be hewers of real worth. Let us resolve to chisel definitely the feature of our monument.

Let us resolve to leave a clear-cut record in all we undertake. We have been guided along the highway, let us follow that way.

MY SHIP

*I have a ship, a little ship,
A ship of Dreams Come True—
It's the finest little ship
That ever sailed the blue.*

*My little ship will breast the waves
And sail far out into
An unknown sea, adventuring—
My Ship of Dreams Come True!*

*And even though the storms may rage,
It somewhere must pull through,
With all my treasures in its hold—
My Ship of Dreams Come True!*

*So sailing on the sea of life,
Through rain and sunshine, too,
I hope to reach the home port in
My Ship of Dreams Come True!*

—LOUISE TURNER

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF '27

IT would be almost impossible to relate all the wonderful things which the Class of '27 has accomplished within the three years it has been at Jefferson High, but I shall give a few instances concerning its past history.

The Class of '27 has the very great honor and distinction of being the first class to have completed the three-year course offered by the new Jefferson High School.

In the fall of '24 we entered the majestic portals of that beautiful new building. Due to influence caused by such surroundings, we had high ideals and aspirations in regard to the three years ahead of us. But, immediately, our hopes and aspirations were shattered to a great extent when "our superiors" stamped us with that traditional sign of "Rats." Not only were we called Rats, but had a real Rat Day all to ourselves—boys running around frantically as if urged on by some instinctive force from behind (which was actually the case).

Naturally, the first thing we were interested in was the organization of our class. When that day finally arrived we had regained most of our former prestige and were now eager to work together for the best advantage of our class. Will we ever forget the election of our midget president, Lawrence Brown? But Lawrence was small only in stature because he turned out to be a "whale" of a leader, guiding us through a most successful year. One thing which stands out especially was the presentation of a beautiful piano to the school.

Our Junior year was equally as pleasant as our Freshman semester had been. Having as our leader Kenneth Pedigo, we began to carefully pave the way to the last great lap of our high school career!

Then began the greatest of all—the Senior year! It was up to us to display our feelings and thoughts, which we had had from the very beginning, in the form of action. It was a wonderful time! But it was a big place to fill because, being Seniors, we were naturally the models for our under classmates. Remember when "Bud" Carter gave up the leadership of the Big Brothers to accept the presidency of the class by a unanimous decision of the Seniors? We were given the auditorium all by ourselves for roll call. How thrilling it was that we, "the superiors," were set off from the rest of the surging mob of students and were able to carry on our affairs undisturbed. We successfully continued the idea of weekly programs (which was started by our predecessors of last year), giving various musical entertainments, plays and Shakespearean scenes.

Also we have the credit of being the first class to have real Senior privileges signed by the principal. Among the many distinguishing ideas was the wearing of tortoise shell spectacles (minus the glass).

But now we have come to the last part of our high school course, and we look back over the years which we have spent so happily together. And it is with sad hearts that we think of bidding adieu to our dear old Alma Mater.

Aside from the knowledge which we have gained in our numerous classes, we have also started in life's largest university—the College of Experience.

May Heaven's best blessings be with each member of the Class of '27 as he or she goes out into the world of Higher Learning—which, in turn, means Life!

SHIPS THAT SAIL

*We stand upon the threshold of to-morrow,
Upon the brink of fathomless oblivion.
In the flaming Dawn we sail the sea of Sorrow,
Upon a rough, sky-canopied pavilion.
Beneath—and close to shore are curling whitecaps,
That strike the rocks and, foaming, sift away.
They are—in their ways, as we, perhaps,
As in our dash at Life we often stray.*

*And when the sun is blazing off to Eastward,
Hurling its glittering rays upon the Earth;
After which, he sails o'erhead to Westward,
And leaves us dreaming, planning—void of mirth.
We tell no one of ALL our trials and failures,
Nor even of success until 'tis made.
But when we climb the Mountain of Detailures—
We rest upon our laurels 'neath myrtle shade.*

*These scans of earthly toil have done us well,
And now we sail upon a troubled sea.
Salty waves are washing o'er the aft shell,
And leave the decks all wet and slippery!
'Tis then that from the cabin one might prowl,
And fall and slide into a briney grave.
But, as the waters close, the heavens scowl,
"There goes a life that he himself could save!"*

*. . . And when another day has passed us by
Our ship rests quietly on a rippling bay.
The sole impediment before us is the sky,
And even THAT will let us through some day!*

ALONG AROUND COMMENCEMENT

“TO think, only a few more days and we will get our diplomas, those little slips of paper we’ve worked eleven years to get! It seems centuries, but I love every moment of it”—“You do?” “Wonder how many will be back next year—I have heard Mr. Poteet wouldn’t be, but I bet he is!” “Who?” “No, my dear, we couldn’t get along without him—Gee, the boys need someone like that to lead them—huh? Oh, she is? To whom? What! I think that is adorable—she is perfectly precious to every one”—“No, shucks, that’s only a joke.” “Sure, I am, already bought tickets—It’s gonna be great—three or four acts, don’t remember which! Sure, all the Seniors are in the musical prologue—Yeah, I heard she was—she’s real cute, I love to see her dance.” “Who’re you taking to the Girls’ Club supper?—Isn’t it the truth? I feel so dumb, asking one, guess I’ll take—. “You are not! He’s adorable—I love the way he wears his tie—Go on, what do you care, she doesn’t have any strings on him, does she?” “Haven’t decided, but I think I shall wear my new orchid georgette—peacock?—I love that—She is! She’s marvelous looking in blue—neither do I, I feel so funny around the alumni—don’t you know it?” “Going to Cincinnati Conservatory, yeah, already entered, huh? You are! That’s wonderful—you’ll love it! Whole lot of ’em, some to Hollins, Randolph-Macon, William and Mary, Virginia, Sullins, Farmville, Converse, Brenau, Roanoke College, V. P. I., Washington and Lee, Georgia Tech, Texas U—Yeah—all over the nation!” “Look at the red rose Mr. Parsons is wearing! He’s a perfect dear, so patient, and so willing to give you another chance. Gee, me, too—I kinda hate to give him up—yeah, Mr. Layman is a good old sport, sure do like ’em both—Miss Hayward? She is so sweet and clever—original? I’ll say she is—I adore her—she has such a broad mind—Isn’t she darling? She sure can teach math—I had her for 4-A Arithmetic and what she doesn’t know is no use for any one to try and learn.” “Who? Me? Thinking—don’t get funny—really I was! Oh, nothing much, thinking about how nice it would be to have a “Senior Tree Day” out on the front lawn and every year have the Senior Class present a small tree or shrub to the school to beautify the grounds—wouldn’t it be nice if the president of the class always made the speech and as soon as the tree was planted, have a ceremony—wish they would do that—think how beautiful the lawn would be! Sure, they would plant the grass, we would plant the trees!” “The club officers? You do! Me, too! I think attractive officers add so much to an organization!” “Haven’t fully decided, think I’ll wear a washable crepe—most every one does, ’cause the gowns sometimes fade and ruin ’em.” “I’ve never seen so many pretty dresses as every one is getting—cutest little sport crepes, georgette and taffeta evening gowns, lacey afternoon frocks, linen suits—and hats! She bought that darling outfit she wore in the fashion show in the B. B. B.'s Musical Revue, I adored every moment of it! Wasn't Stafford a scream in "Seventeen!" "Gee, we had loads of fun." "What's Buddy giving you for graduation? How exciting, I am, too! More heartbeats. Seems every one is—she is, yeah, I heard her tell him—really she did." "To think, next year this time, we will all be away, some here, some there, but I kinda hate to go—me, too, I love everyone here and somehow don't want to leave, what! When? This is exciting, the first one." "Well, let's celebrate! Might as well, only a few more days and we will be through, out on a wide range to paddle our own canoes. I love ole Hi, and have loved her so long she's like a big pal." "Yeah! Suits me, meet me at the end of the sixth and we'll go to the movies! Richard Dix is playing! I think he is divine!"

BOOSTER CLUB

BOOSTER CLUB

What could Hi do without the Boosters? If you want pep and enthusiasm the Boosters will certainly fill the bill. They have the reputation of putting things across and they have lived up to that reputation ever since their organization in 1923. They are always willing to serve any other organization in High School, and they Boost! Boost! Boost!

Charlotte Richardson has been the "guiding light" of the club this year, and has ably proved herself worthy of being the leader of this attractive group of girls.

Miss Sully Hayward is the faculty advisor of the Boosters. What else need be said?

BIG BROTHER CLUB

This marks the close of the third year in the history of the Big Brother Club. The Big Brother Club was started in the fall of 1924 by a group of boys of which there are only three left, Buddy Carter, Ed. Bell and Lawrence Brown. These boys are graduating this time, and next fall there will be no original members left in the Club.

The past year has been an eventful one for the Club. They have boosted athletic games, taken part in civic activities and helped in other High School activities. Last fall the Big Brothers helped to put across the Lynchburg-Roanoke football game with a bang. They ordered megaphones and sold them, assisted in advertising the game and selling tickets.

The Big Brothers, with the Boosters, put across the Booster-Big Brother Musical Revue and made it a success.

Last year the Big Brothers and the Boosters gave the "J" Festival together. This year the Big Brothers are giving it themselves.

BIG BROTHER CLUB

GIRLS' CLUB

GIRLS' CLUB

Building has been the underlying theme of every undertaking of the Girls' Club this year; both the building of girls and of a new Y. W. C. A. building of which the Club has had its part. The adaptability of the theme together with the earnest coöperation of girls and advisors has made the eleventh year of the club the most successful of its history. The play, our highest undertaking (of the year), notwithstanding the fact that it was our first attempt at a dramatic performance—thanks to Mrs. Kinzer, our program advisor and coach—was such a success that it relieved us of all our financial burdens, such as our Building Fund Pledge and sending girls to Rockbrook Conference. That Girls' Club girls are thinking as well as doing has been evident by the interest shown in the series of discussions held coördinately with the Hi-Y boys this year.

A grand finale for this interesting year was the Final Banquet at the Patrick Henry Hotel, May 21st, with all of the Romeos and Juliets. We wish to express our grateful appreciation for all they have done for us to—

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y Club has done more to build up the morale and mold the characters of the boys of Jefferson High in the past year than any year previous. Clean living, clean speech, clean athletics are the chief aims of Hi-Y. The Hi-Y meets every Thursday evening, at which time there is a supper. Afterward, some distinguished man brings a message to the boys. Classes of Bible study are held in the late evening, which are unusually beneficial because every youth is free to express the utterances of his heart.

Hi-Y is a national organization reaching high school boys by means of the aid of Y. M. C. A. stations. Conferences are held throughout the state. Here the older boys share their knowledge and methods with one another, striving for a great cause.

MARTHA WASHINGTON LITERARY SOCIETY

The M. W. L. S. is proud to look back on a year of unusually successful work. The 1927 membership was larger than it has been for several years and a great deal of promising talent, not only literary but artistic, musical and dramatic as well, has been discovered.

Much has been learned about parliamentary law. A short story and a play contest have been held, increasing the interest of the members in literary composition. A play, "Seventeen," by the two societies, proved an unusual success. The proceeds are to be used to pay the expenses of the literary team to the University of Virginia, and to decorate the Society Hall where forensic skill is encouraged. Just now, all interest is concentrated on literary events that center at Charlottesville.

JEFFERSONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Jeffersonian Literary Society is one of the most progressive clubs in High School. At the meetings every Wednesday afternoon, debates, readings, public speaking, orations, music and current events feature in the programs.

School letters and credit on English are bestowed for excellent work.

This year exceptional dramatic ability was exhibited to citizens of Roanoke in Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen," pronounced one of the best plays ever produced at Jefferson High. First place in Southwest Virginia Oratorical Contest and third place in Emory and Henry Declamation Contest were won by Jeffersonians this year. The school is represented at the State contests at the University of Virginia every year by members of the Jeffersonian Literary Society.

Mr. Fallwell, as faculty advisor, has more than contributed a large share of success to the Society by his capable directing and leadership.

ORCHESTRA

CHORAL CLUB

The Club is organized for the express purpose of fostering and teaching the art of good music, to help and instruct the gifted talent, and to urge those interested in the love of music, to gain a better foundation for the mastering and appreciation of the art. From time to time programs are given to show the development of group singing and Glee Club work. Do you remember the excellent program given by the broadcasting station of Jefferson High School Music Department?

The instruction helps students take part in musical plays and musical comedies and they usually have the advantage of others not instructed in the work. It is the aim of the club also to have recreational singing of the whole student body at various times, which stimulates a larger membership. Under classmen are especially invited to take advantage of this instruction.

The Club has a worthy constitution and by-laws. Much has been accomplished under the diligent and able teaching of Miss Blanche Hurley. Note reading, writing, study of great masters and group singing has been the past program.

The present Spanish Club was organized in the fall of 1925 with Miss Bowman as Faculty Advisor, and, ever since, has been one of the foremost clubs at Hi. At present it has an enrollment of about fifty members. It believes that perseverance works wonders and, to be alive, it must be active.

The Club meets every two weeks for literary programs. The study of the literature, art, music, history and sport life of Spain offers interesting and instructive material for literary programs.

This year the Club had a girls' and boys' basket ball team and has taken an enthusiastic part in the athletics at Hi.

FOOTBALL TEAM

FOOTBALL, '26

The football season of '26 was another big success for Roanoke Hi. We started the season by losing to Greenbrier at Lewisburg, West Virginia. The following week we beat R. M. A. We then played Salem, Danville and V. M. I. Freshmen, winning from Salem and Danville, but lost to V. M. I. on Armistice Day. We journeyed out to Huntington, West Virginia, and played that high school, that game also ended with Roanoke on the short end of the score.

However, these defeats did not have any bearing on the State Championship because these teams were not in the League.

By defeating Lynchburg, Roanoke won the Championship of the West and the right to play the Champions of the East for the State Championship. The Championship game was played in Portsmouth late in December. The spirit of Christmas was everywhere, but old Santa seemed to be all for Portsmouth and so they won. This was the first time that they have won the title.

Of the seventeen letter men, Captain-Elect Lemon and seven others will return next year.

BOYS' BASKET BALL

BASKET BALL

Opening the season with a well-earned victory over Danville, the "Magic City Quint" succeeded in annexing eight of the fourteen games on their schedule by substantial scores which showed the strength of the team during the season.

Due to the superior ability of Coach "Hunk" Hurt, Jefferson Hi pulled through with a successful season, dropping two of their five defeats to the strong Viscose Quint.

With only two letter men back, Hurt and Settle, Jefferson Hi entered the Washington and Lee Basket Ball Tournament. Though they did not come through on top, they are to be congratulated on their fine showing.

The following men composed the squad: Hurt (Captain), Whately, Settle, M. Lemon, G. Lemon, Urick, Levin, Evans, Aliff (Manager).

During the season Jefferson Hi amassed a total of 363 points to their opponents' 344 points.

In accordance with the policy of the Girls' Athletic Association, the Jefferson High School girls did not enter the League for the State Championship this year. Instead, an inter-class tournament was held between the classes, each team playing each other team twice. The Sophomores came out ahead, winning three of the four games they played.

The best players were then chosen from the class teams to compose a varsity team to play two outside games. This team tied Waynesboro 25-25, and defeated Lynchburg 15-11. The season was counted successful and most enjoyable.

TRACK TEAM

TRACK

A large and promising track squad reported to Al and Nort Stone on March first. After the preliminary loosening-up period the men settled down to hard work.

Handicapped through lack of equipment for the field events and a schedule of only two meets, the record made to date hardly does justice to the true ability of the team.

At the time of going to press, Jefferson High School has acquitted itself very well against the strong V. P. I. yearlings although this meet was lost.

What the boys will do against high school teams of their own calibre at the University of Virginia Championships yet remains to be seen. But with such point scorers as Captain Lemon, Draper, Price, Overstreet, Fox, Boyer, Duke, Huff, Altizer and West, it is expectantly hoped that the season will yet end in a blaze of glory.

BASEBALL TEAM

BASEBALL

With a fairly good nucleus left from last year, Coach Hurt began his operations toward developing a baseball team. The loss of Humphries from short stop caused some concern until "Buck" Pendleton was found to be quite adept at that position. McDevitt at first and Davis at second look like a pair of veterans. While Pete Oakley, a rookie, looks like the goods behind the plate. Willard Oakley and Pink Crockett hold up the pitching end very well. In the outfield there is a good deal of competition with only Lemon sure of a position.

R. M. A. was the first opponent of the season and they let J. H. S. down to a 4-1 defeat. But Rocky Mount was then defeated 7-3.

A very successful season is looked forward to from this team.

MORE MONEY

A student who stops school with the sixth grade averages about $750 per year for life, and lives in a cheap house that sometimes leaks. A high school graduate averages from $1,500 to $2,000 per year for life, lives in a good house and his position is permanent. When he adds a technical education to his high school training, his income is much larger and his chances to rise much greater.
